

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

1. Ordinatum est quod annus academicus, prout consuetudo obtinuit, quatuor terminos, in quibus omnes actus scholastici exercendi sunt, et totidem vacationes contineat.

2. E quibus primus terminus incipiet in crastino S. Dionysii, scilicet decimo Octobris (in quo antiquitus Magistri lectiones suas resumere solebant); et octavo die ante Natalem Domini, scilicet decimo septimo Decembris, in crastino diei qui O Sapientia dici solet, terminabitur.

3. Secundus autem in crastino S. Hilarii, hoc est, decimo quarto Januarii, inchoabitur; et in vigilia Dominicæ Palmarum desinet.

4. Tertius autem die Mercurii post festum Paschatis initium sumat; et in die Veneris proxime ante Pentecosten exeat. [v. Add. p. 660, 1862.]

5. Quartus die Saturni ante festum Pentecostes auspicetur: et continuetur ex prorogatione, virtute præsentis statuti, (absque præjudicio vel incommodo statutorum vel consuetudinum alicujus collegii vel aulæ,) in diem Sabbati primum diem Martis in mense [v. Add. p. 533, 1856.] Julio proxime sequentem; et ulterius, secundum beneplacitum Vice-Cancellarii, Procuratorum et Magistrorum regentium.

6. Quod si forte initium vel finis alicujus termini in diem festum inciderit, inchoatio vel terminatio ejusdem in diem immediate sequentem differatur. Proviso semper, quod si finis termini tertii in diem festum inciderit, terminus iste in die antecedenti exeat.

7. Plenus autem terminus, quoad exercitia in pleno termino per statuta necessario præstanda, inchoari intelligendus est primo die hebdomadis sequentis primam Congregationem; utpote, si prima Congregatio fuerit die Lunæ, Dominica proxime sequens habeatur primus dies in pleno termino.

Add. p. 603.
[1858.] 8. Cum quæstio orta fuerit quo potissimum tempore terminus quisque incipiat vel desinat; ad tollendam hanc dubitationem, placuit Universitati statuere, ut totus ille dies in quo terminus quisque inchoabitur vel terminabitur intra terminum istum reputetur.

[1837.] Sectio II.—De precibus solennibus ac concione initio cuiusque termini habendis.

2. Quam concionem obeant ii qui juxta seriem Tit. XII (XVI). §. 2. ordinatam concionandi vices sustinere debent. Si quis vero ante tres saltem menses a præfecto domus suæ ejusve deputato rite præmonitus, se partes suas impleturum esse non indicaverit, neque ipse domus præfectus, vel ejus deputatus, aliquem alium nominaverit, Vice-Cancellarius aliquem concionaturum designabit. Cauto semper quod S. Theologiæ bedellus ante sex septimanas Vice-Cancellario renunciare teneatur, quandocunque nemo ad eam concionandi vicem supplendam nominatus fuerit.

1855.] 3. Cuilibet autem hanc concionem habenti solvantur quinque libræ et quinque solidi.

4. Litaniam Procuratores ipsi, vel alii duo Magistri a Procuratoribus designati, solenniter ac devote cantare aut legere teneantur. Chorus autem respondeat.

5. Preces vero Vice-Cancellarius aut ejus deputatus perlegat, et reliqua ibidem in officiis divinis præstanda celebret ac peragat.

Add. p. 813.
[1872.] 6. Demum post peractas preces, finita etiam concione, ad sacram synaxin decenter et reverenter celebrandam se accingant.

Licet tamen inde libros impressos, si qui ad praxim musicæ præcipue utiles sint, rogatu choragi vel præcentoris, foras ad eum locum portare in quo schola musicæ practicæ habeatur. Horum omnium librorum curam habeat et custos sit professor Musicæ: ita tamen ut ne alienentur a bibliotheca Bodleiana, cujus curatores possint et teneantur eos inspicere et visitare, quando opus sit: atque ut professor ad eosdem curatores referat quicquid de iis insuper agendum esse censeat.

Add. p. 546.

5. If the Professor, either from illness, or from some other urgent cause approved by the Vice-Chancellor, shall be for a time prevented from discharging his duties, he shall name a fit and sufficient deputy, to be approved by the Vice-Chancellor, and in case of his neglect to do this, the Vice-Chancellor shall appoint such deputy.

6. If the Professor from age, or any other cause, shall become permanently incapacitated for discharging the duties of his office, the electors shall, at the instance of the Vice-Chancellor, proceed to the election of a deputy to discharge the duties of the Professorship.

7. Whenever a deputy shall be appointed, the Vice-Chancellor shall determine the proportion of the Professor's stipend to be paid to the deputy.

8. The Professor shall be subject to any regulations which the University may make from time to time respecting the number or time of lectures, the mode of teaching, and the examination of pupils.

Sectio II.—Statuta lectores in genere spectantia.

§. 1. Quod lectores in propriis personis legant. De substituendis aliis loco ægrotantium aut absentium. Necnon de lectionum numero, et modo legendi.

1. Cum plurimum et fructus et commoditatis e publicorum lectorum auditione obtineri possit, noverint professores omnes et prælectores conditionibus se semper firmiter teneri atque obstringi, quas vel benefactores imposuerint, vel venerabilis domus Convocationis ratas fecerit. Nunquam igitur non meminerint, universis id muneris obtigisse ut legant et doceant, et in facultate quisque sua academiæ famam pro virili tueantur et locupletent. Hunc in finem statutum est quod quilibet prælector seu professor per se legat et non per alium, nisi ex causa infirmitatis aut alia causa necessaria, per Vice-Cancellarium et Procuratores approbanda; quo in casu a professore vel prælectore substituatur vir idoneus cum eruditione tum gradu, ab iisdem Vice-Cancellario et Procuratoribus approbandus.

Add. p. 8,
post 321.

2. Quod si aliquis per incuriam in legendo defecerit, (nisi ex iis sit de quorum officiis inter Universitatem et lecturarum fundatores in hac regiminis parte specialiter conventum fuerit) prælector aut professor a Vice-Cancellario admoneatur ut muneri suo fungendo diligentius in posterum incumbat. Cui admonitioni si inobediens reperiatur, penes Vice-Cancellarium et Procuratores esto virum idoneum substituere, competenti mercede, eorum arbitrio, pro ratione stipendii professoris sive prælectoris prædicti, atque ejusdem sumptibus remunerandum.

3. Insuper statutum est quod prælectionum unaquæque series octo ad minus lectiones complectatur. Quilibet vero professor vel prælector pleno termino, vel in schola sibi assignata vel in alio loco a Vice-Cancellario approbando, ad tres usque horæ quartas legere teneatur. Finitis vero lectionibus professores seu prælectores aliquantisper in auditorio suo commorentur, et si aliquis auditor de aliquo dubitet, illum benigne audiant, difficultatibusque et dubiis sibi motis satisfaciant.

Statutum est quod intra quatuordecim dies ab initio terminorum S. Michaelis, S. Hilarii et Paschatis respective numerandos, professores et prælectores qui lectionum seriem publice legendam suscipiant, academiam certiore faciant de loco et tempore ad lectiones suas inchoandas destinatis. Et quo melius hæc omnibus innotescant, præter monitionem vel schedulam more consueto delatam ad singulos collegiorum et aularum præfectos, ad utrumque Procuratorem et ad cujuslibet collegii vel aulæ refectorium tam publicum, quam privatum magistrorum, ejusdem quoque schedulæ duo exemplaria quisque professor, seu prælector, ad ædium universitatis deferri curabit, ut ab eo unum juxta portam australem scholarum, alterum in proscholio juxta portam scholæ Sacræ Theologiæ, tabulis quibusdam affigantur. Hæc autem omnia sumptibus academici fiant. Quod si post publicam istam monitionem [v. Add. p. 622, 1859.] vel unus academicus professoris cujuslibet lectioni intersit, professor iste legere omnino teneatur.

Item statutum est quod nullus professor aut prælector publicus quicquam directe vel indirecte doceat, Add. 9. p. post 321. [1839.] vel dogmatice asserat, quod fidei catholice vel bonis moribus ulla ex parte adversetur. Add. p. 813. [1872.]

§. 4. De modo, quo auditores in scholis se gerere inter audiendum debeant. Add. p. 528. [1856.]

Quisque, quum primum scholam intraverit, sedem aliquam capessat, quoadusque sedilia suffecerint; reliqui vero, quibus non sit ubi sedeant, in eo loco quem primum occupaverint, consistent: nec quisquam sedem suam deserat, huc illuc cursitando; sed omnes ad auscultandum professori se modeste componant. Insuper quisque eum auctorem, quem professor ad explicandum sumpserit, privatim, si a professore id requisitum fuerit, studiose legat. Professor unusquisque in sua schola procuratoria auctoritate muniatur.

Add. p. 735.

Sectio III. §. 1.—De feodis professorum et prælectorum.

Professori unicuique et prælectori licebit feodi nomine viginti solidos a singulis auditoribus suis exigere, nisi aliter per statutum aliquod vel instrumentum foundationis provisum sit: quo feodo bis soluto liberum auditoribus esto in posterum lectionibus in eadem materie habendis, quotiescunque voluerint, interesse. Proviso ne hoc statutum ad ea quæ in praxi versantur (veluti physiologiæ, chemiæ practicæ, et similium) attinere habeatur.

[1855.] §. 2. De salariis quibusdam professoribus pendendis.

Cum capite 81°, paragrapho 46°, legis anno Victoriæ reginæ 17° et 18°, A. D. 1854, latæ, statutum fuerit ut aboleatur vectigal pro impressione quod nunc temporis fisco pendendum est ab iis qui vel in matriculam Universitatis vel ad gradus admittendi sunt, quum primum sustentandis oneribus quibus hactenus subventum est pecuniarum ope ex parlamenti consulto, quotannis reddito, a dominis ærarii erogatarum, ita provisum fuerit ut dominis ærarii satis sit factum, statuit academia ut e cista Universitatis in posterum numerentur quotannis a Vice-Cancellario,

Quum regia majestas lecturas duas publicas per literas patentes in Universitate Oxoniensi gratiose constituerit et fundaverit, unam scilicet in Theologia (quam vocant) pastorali (quo nomine continentur pastoralis muneris disciplina, conciones sive homilias scribendi et habendi ratio, liturgiarum cum rubricis historia, et alia ejusdem generis), alteram in historia ecclesiastica veterumque patrum scriptis; atque etiam Universitati benigne permiserit, ut temporis spatium, per quod singulis annis illarum disciplinarum professores in Universitate residere tenentur, ad usus suos digerat et accommodet, necnon ut professoribus conditiones præscribat de lectionibus legendis et auditoribus erudiendis et examinandis; porro quum in tota re theologica hodie opus sit majori et labore et subsidio, quo melius et accuratius ad sacros ordines instituantur studiosi; statuit et decrevit Universitas in his verbis:

2. Præleget uterque professor singulis terminis assidue per sex septimanas, tribus ad minimum diebus in [v. Add. p. 341, 1847.] qualibet septimana, facta prius, prout statuta requirunt (supra sect. II. §. 2.) publica per schedulas monitione. In hac autem parte pro uno æstimandi sunt termini Paschatis et S. Trinitatis.

3. Præter lectiones in quibus materiem suam generatim tractabit professor uterque, catecheticas etiam lectiones habebit, in quibus scriptorem aliquem sive veterem sive recentiorum discutiet, verba ejus citando, conferendo, et de eorum sensu auditores interrogando: in quem finem curabit ne singulæ auditorum classes justo numerosiores fiant.

4. In cæteris theologiæ partibus, dogmatica scilicet, [Add. p. 330. 1843.] exegetica, et symbolica, lectiones habendæ sunt a regio S. Theologiæ professore et d. Margaretæ S. Theologiæ prælectore, sicut jampridem consuetum est (supra

5. Singulis terminis unusquisque professor auditorum suorum nomina in registrum referet, in quo etiam notabit quot lectionibus singuli auditores interfuerint.

Statutum regia auctoritate sancitum, 1864.

Quoniam per hodiernam dispositionem legatorum Elizabethæ Denyer, viduæ, necnon Joannis Johnson S. T. P., incremento S. Theologiæ studii, ipsique adeo fundatorum voluntati minus plene satisfactum sit,

3. Duabus ad minimum ante habendam examinationem septimanis Universitatem de ea re certiores faciant examinatores, schedula his verbis concipienda, et usitatis modis pervulganda :

5. Nemo se examinandum sistat, nisi qui gradum Baccalaurei in Artibus susceperit, nec terminum a matriculatione sua vicesimum septimum excesserit. [v. Add. p. 717, 1865.]

They shall also be required to show a competent knowledge both of the text and of the contents of the books which they offer, and to answer not only questions relating to Grammar and Literature, but also any questions directly arising out of the matters treated of in these books. Candidates who do not seek Honours in Greek and Latin Literature shall be required to translate from English into Latin and also to translate short passages of Latin and Greek books not specially offered by them.

8. Papers of Logic, of Philology and Criticism, of Composition in Greek and Latin Prose, of translation of passages from Greek and Latin authors not

The Board of Studies may include in the Examination, either as necessary or as optional, other books and subjects subsidiary to the knowledge of the Greek and Latin languages.

9. No Candidate who does not seek Honours in Greek and Latin Literature shall be allowed to offer any of the same books, or, except in cases specially excepted by the Board of Studies, a portion of any of the same authors in which he satisfied the Masters of the Schools, or (in case he did not pass Responsions) the Examiners appointed under the authority of the Delegates of the Examination of Schools, or of the Delegates of the Examination of Candidates qui non sunt de corpore Universitatis. [v. Add. p. 837, 1873.]

10. Any Candidate who, being of full age, shall object on religious grounds, or for whom, not being of full age, his parent or guardian shall object on religious grounds, to an examination in the Holy Gospels, shall be permitted to offer instead thereof an additional Greek book not the same as any of the books in which he satisfied the Masters of the Schools, nor a portion of any of the same authors which he is offering in the course of the same Examination. The knowledge of such additional book shall be of no account in the distribution of Honours. [v. Add. p. 831, 1873.]

11. Every Candidate shall be examined viva voce in the Holy Gospels (or in the book offered instead thereof, as the case may be), and in one at least of the other books which he offers.

 Three other Members of Convocation added by co-optation, one of whom shall retire at the end of every year but shall be re-eligible.

14. The Boards of Studies shall from time to time publish lists of authors and subjects which may be offered under the several provisions of the Statute but subject to the provision hereafter made for a distinction in respect of books and subjects between the First and Second Public Examinations. They shall specify where necessary whether the whole, and if not the whole, what portion, of each author or subject shall be offered as a book or subject, and what books and subjects, if any, shall be necessarily offered by Candidates for Honours. They shall have power to fix from time to time, if they think fit, the minimum of books and subjects required for Honours.

But any Candidate who shall either not appear for examination in the first Term in which he is of sufficient standing to do so, or shall fail to satisfy the Moderators, as the case may be, shall be permitted to offer at any future Examination, the same books and subjects which he then offered or might have offered.

§ 2. On the admission of Candidates and the order of the Examination.

1. The First Public Examination shall be held in Michaelmas Term and in Easter or Trinity Term.* The Examination shall begin in Michaelmas Term on the 23rd day of November, and in Easter or Trinity Term on the Friday of the third week before the Encænia. 3. Every Candidate who desires to be excused from examination in the Holy Gospels shall deliver or transmit through his Tutor to the Proctor a statement signed, if he be of full age, by himself, or, if he be not of full age, by his parent or guardian, that he or his parent or guardian for him, as the case may be, objects on religious grounds to such an examination. The book which such Candidate offers in place of the Holy Gospels shall be specified on the list of subjects given in by him to the Proctor. And every Candidate whose name shall have previously been placed in the Class-list by the Moderators appointed to examine Candidates who seek Honours in Greek and Latin Literature, and who shall offer himself for examination in a book offered instead of the Holy Gospels, shall be required to specify the books and subjects offered by him at such previous examination.

Candidates who have omitted to enter their names during the hours fixed by the Proctors in the days hereby prescribed may do so by application to the Proctor up to Twelve o'clock at noon on the day before that on which the Examination begins, or if the day before be a Sunday, then up to Twelve o'clock at noon on the Saturday preceding, on payment of Two Guineas in addition to the statutable fee or fees, on the occasion of each such application.

6. The Moderators appointed to conduct the several parts of the Examination shall, with the consent of the Vice-Chancellor, and subject to the provisions hereinbefore made respecting the days of beginning the several parts of the Examination, fix the times and the place or places at which the attendance of Candidates shall be required for examination either in writing or viva voce, and shall severally determine as they think fit the order in which the Candidates shall be examined viva voce in each part of the Examination, provided that those Candidates shall be first examined viva voce in Greek and Latin Literature who are Candidates for Honours in Mathematics. The Moderators appointed to examine in Greek and Latin Literature those Candidates who do not seek Honours shall distribute themselves for the purposes of the Examination into two Schools, so that three Moderators be assigned to conduct the Examination in each School.

7. At the close of each day on which Candidates who do not seek Honours have been examined viva voce in the books and subjects which they offer, the Moderators shall give a Certificate to each of the Candidates who shall have satisfied them; which Certificate shall specify the books and subjects offered by the Candidate, and also, in the case of each Candidate who offers a book instead of the Holy Gospels, the book offered by him instead thereof.

The Certificate shall be signed, if the Candidate shall have offered Logic, by three of the Moderators appointed to examine in Greek and Latin Literature those Candidates who do not seek Honours: but, if the Candidate shall have offered the Elements of Geometry and of Algebra, by two of such Moderators and also by two of the Moderators appointed to examine in Mathematics.

After all the Candidates for Honours either in Greek and Latin Literature or in Mathematics shall have been examined, the Moderators appointed to conduct each part of the Examination shall, so soon as they shall have fully considered the work of the Candidates, distribute the names of such Candidates as shall be judged by them to have shown sufficient merit into three classes according to the merit of each Candidate, and shall draw up a list accordingly with the names in each class arranged alphabetically. They shall all sign three copies of such list, and shall cause one of the copies to be affixed to the door of the Metaphysic School, one to be affixed to the door of the Apodyterium of the Convocation House, and one to be sent to the Vice-Chancellor.

Also, at the close of the Examination in each Honour School, a copy of the list of Candidates who have obtained Honours at that Examination, or to whom certificates of having passed in any of the subjects of the Pass School shall have been given, shall be made in the book kept for that purpose. And in the Schools of Jurisprudence and Modern History the Examiners shall append to the name of each Candidate so entered a note of the select portions, whether of Legal or Historical study, in which he has been examined.

4. Each day's entry of the names of Candidates who have received certificates, and each copy of the Class-lists, above required to be made, shall be certified by the signatures of all the Examiners who have granted the certificates, or who have drawn up the Class-list, as the case may be.

5. The books above directed to be kept for each School shall, after the close of the Examination, remain in the custody of the Registrar of the University; and any question thereafter arising, with respect to any certificate or place in the Class-list, shall be determined by reference to such books.

In the absence of the Proctors, the Masters of the Schools, Moderators, and Public Examiners shall, on each day of examination, have proctorial authority within the precincts of the Schools.

§ 10. Of the Interpretation of certain terms.

1. In this Section of the Statute, unless the context otherwise require, the word 'Examiners' shall be taken to include Masters of the Schools and Moderators; the word 'Examination' shall be taken to include Responsions; and the word 'School' shall be taken to include any part of an Examination in which a certain number of Examiners act together as a distinct examining body.

2. In the interpretation of all provisions by which the Examiners in any School, or the members of any Board of Studies, are distinguished as junior or senior respectively, seniority shall be estimated as between Doctors according to the provisions of Tit. VIII. (XI.)

§ 2; as between Bachelors of any faculty and Masters of Arts respectively, according to priority of presentation to the Degree of Master of Arts or to the Degree of Bachelor of Civil Law or of Medicine.

And in all cases in which it shall be necessary for the due regulation of the succession among the Examiners in any School, or the members of any Board of Studies, that one of two or more persons should retire before the expiration of his period of service, then the junior of such persons shall retire.

3. For the purpose of all provisions respecting the day of holding any Examination, or of entering the names of Candidates for any Examination, the Easter and Trinity Terms of the same year shall be reckoned as one Term.

And no provision respecting the standing of Candidates shall be so construed as to debar any Candidate from offering himself for any Examination held in either Easter or Trinity Term, who might have offered himself if the same Examination had fallen that year in the other of those two Terms.

Add. p. 853.

3. The Examination shall be conducted partly in writing and partly viva voce.

4. One Examiner at least shall be present during the whole time of the Examination in writing.

§. 5. Exercitium pro gradu Doctoris in Jure Civili præstandum. Add. p. 416.

Statutum est ut Baccalaureus Juris Civilis, priusquam ad incipiendum in eadem facultate admittatur, dissertationem a se conscriptam de thesi quavis ad Jus

Civile pertinente, prius a professore approbata, publice intra scholarum præinctus vel in aliquo alio loco idoneo a Vice-Cancellario approbato coram professore regio recitare, eique ejusdem dissertationis exemplar finita lectione tradere teneatur.

Unusquisque sive graduatus in Jure Civili sive studiosus, ex alia academia hic incorporandus, priusquam in matriculam hujus academici referatur, testimonia coram Vice-Cancellario exhibeat, quibus liquido pateat eum exercitia præstitisse omnia quæ in sua academia nondum graduati pro Baccalaureatu in Artibus præstare tenentur. Cautum sit insuper ne quis in Jure Civili graduatus incorporetur, nisi examinationes prius subierit, tempus compleverit, et reliqua præstiterit omnia quæ per hanc sectionem requiruntur.

[v. Add. p. 840, 1874.] §. 1. Of the qualifications of Candidates for the Degree of Bachelor of Medicine.

Any person who has been admitted to the Degree of Bachelor of Arts may supplicate for the Degree of Bachelor of Medicine in the twenty-seventh Term from his Matriculation, provided that he shall have passed the Examinations hereinafter prescribed, and shall have had his name on the Books of some College or Hall, or on the Register of Scholares non Ascripti, for twenty-six Terms.

1. Si quis ad Baccalaureatum in Medicina promoveri cupiat, priusquam ad supplicandum pro gratia admittatur, duas examinationes subeat.

2 Harum examinationum prima in iis scientiis

habeatur quibus Medicina tanquam fundamento innititur, secunda in ipsa Medicina et iis scientiis quæ cum Medicina arctius cohærent. Ad primam examinationem subeundam nemo (iis exceptis de quibus infra dicendum est) admittatur, nisi qui duos annos (scil. octo terminos) compleverit, postquam examinadoribus publicis in una schola (ut supra dictum) satisfecerit; ad secundam nemo, nisi qui quatuor annos (scil. sedecim terminos) ex eodem puncto temporis computandos, et duos saltem annos postquam examinadoribus in prima examinatione pro gradu Baccalaurei in Medicina satisfecerit, compleverit.

Proviso tamen quod si qui in schola naturalis scientiæ primos vel secundos honores reportaverint, his fas sit testimonia ab examinadoribus postulare, quo appareat num in philosophia mechanica, chemia, vel botanica examinadoribus se eximie commendaverint. Quicumque vero ista testimonia exhibuerint, iis liceat primam examinationem pro gradu Baccalaurei in Medicina primo quoque tempore subire, nec in ea scientia vel iis scientiis ad quas testimonia pertineant denuo examinari.

3. Quod ad primam examinationem attinet, tres Add. p. 636. [1860.] examinadores ex eorum numero qui in aliqua facultate rexerint, quod ad secundam, duo ex iis qui in Medicina inceperint, a Vice-Cancellario singulis examinationibus nominentur, et deinceps a domo Convocationis approbentur. Iis semper adjiciatur Medicinæ professor regius, cujus erit huic negotio præesse et in paritate suffragiorum rem decidere. Sin professor propter gravem aliquam causam absit, alium quendam in Medicina Doctorem Vice-Cancellarius in ejus locum substituat.

4. Singuli autem examinadores antequam munera [v. Add. p. 769, 1868.] sua adeant, spondeant coram Vice-Cancellario, verba præeunte Procuratore seniore, sub hac forma:

“Tu dabis fidem te munus et officium examinadoris publici in facultate Medicinæ sedulo et fideliter, omni odio et amicitia, spe et timore sepositis, pro virili exsecuturum, forma et modo per statuta requisitis.” Resp. “Do fidem.”

§. 3. De tempore, loco, materie et modo examinationum.

1. Semel quolibet anno examinatio utriusque generis habeatur in pleno termino Michaelis.

2. His examinationibus liceat examinаторibus cum consensu Vice-Cancellarii locum aliquem idoneum assignare, modo ante examinationem habendam triduo saltem de hac re academiam certiore faciant.

3. Instituatur examinatio prima in anatomia et physiologia humana (ratione habita cum descriptionis tum praxeos), et aliquatenus in anatomia et physiologia comparativa, insuper in iis partibus philosophiæ mechanicæ, botanicæ, et chemiæ quæ Medicinæ subserviunt. Secundæ examinationis hæc esto materies, scilicet theoria et praxis Medicinæ (morbis mulierum et infantium inclusis), materia medica, ars therapeutica et pathologia, principia chirurgiæ et artis obstetriciæ, jurisprudentia medica et hygiene (quam vocant) generalis. Examinatoribus liberum esto quolibet candidatum vel in hisce universis vel in aliqua parte harum (prout ipsis satius visum fuerit) examinare. Porro nunquam non adjiciantur veteres illi scriptores, Hippocrates, Aretæus, Galenus et Celsus, quorum duo ad minimum in omni examine semper adhibentor. Proviso tamen ut in alterius locum substituere liceat quemvis ex recentioribus a professore regio approbatum.

Add. p. 637.
[1860.]

4. Cujuslibet candidati examen partim viva voce partim scriptis partim via practica peragatur, et quantum fieri poterit uno decursu, vel saltem sine diei intervallo, absolvatur. Omnes examinatores uniuscujusque examini per integrum tempus intersint, nisi aliquid in scriptis vel in via practica præstandum sit, quo in casu unus tantummodo adesse teneatur.

5. Peracta utraque examinatione, examinatores de candidatis singulis inter se judicium ferant, et quemcunque dignum invenerint ei testimonium perhibeant; —in prima examinatione sub hac forma :

6. Nomina quoque eorum qui examinătoribus satisfecerunt in registrum peculiare inserantur penes registrarium Universitatis, finita quaque examinatione, adservandum.

7. Quod si contingat aliquem hujusmodi testimonio indignum reperiri, liceat illi in aliqua sequente examinatione candidatum se iterum profiteri.

8. His examinationibus interesse liceat omnibus magistris in Artibus, Baccalaureis in Jure Civili, et quibuslibet superiore aliquo gradu insignitis; necnon Baccalaureis in Artibus, si modo coram professore regio spoponderint Medicinæ se operam duros. Sub eadem conditione liceat juristis et aliis nondum graduatis, qui examen pro gradu Baccalaurei in Artibus vel Baccalaurei in Jure Civili subierint, his examinationibus interesse.

9. Unusquisque candidatus examen subiturus Medicinæ professorem regium hac de re certiozem facere tenebitur decimo quarto die ad minimum ante hebdomadam examinationi habendæ destinatam. Ante secundam vero examinationem professori in manus literas certificatorias tradendas curet, quibus se apud quoddam melioris notæ nosocomium morbis curandis interfuisse constet. Nec professori regio licebit, literis certificatoriis istis a majori parte examinătorum non approbatis, aliquem ad examen subeundum admittere.

Si quis ad Doctoratum in Medicina promoveri cupiat, post gradum Baccalaurei in Medicina susceptum per tres annos integros studio vel praxi Medicinæ incumbat, sive intra academiam sive alibi, priusquam ad incipiendum in eadem facultate admittatur.

2. Denique ad tollendam omnem dubitationem pronunciamus quod omnes qui in Medicina inceperint, eodem suffragandi jure gaudeant ac si in Artibus aliquando rexissent.

Add. p. 638. Cautum sit insuper nequis in Medicina graduatus incorporetur, nisi examinationes prius subierit, tempus compleverit, et reliqua præstiterit omnia quæ per præsens hoc statutum requiruntur.

Statutum est ut unusquisque, antequam Baccalaureatum in S. Theologia consequatur, gradum Magistri in Artibus suscipiat, et postquam in illa facultate inceperit, per triennium completum (numerando a die suæ admissionis ad regendum), sive intra academiam [v. Add. p.

§. 2. Exercitia pro gradu Baccalaurei in Theologia præstanda.

1. Qui ad gradum Baccalaurei in S. Theologia [v. Add. p.

2. Ante hujusmodi exercitia habenda, nomen candidati una cum thesibus per septem dies integros significetur, schedula monitoria ad collegiorum et aularum præfectos delata et ad portam insuper rectorii vel promptuarii cujusque collegii et aulæ affixa.

3. Insuper statutum est quod nemo ad gradum Baccalaurei in Sacra Theologia admittatur, nisi qui in sacrum presbyterorum ordinem prius fuerit admissus: qua de re literas testimoniales ab episcopo qui manus ei imposuerit pro more concessas, vel saltem certificationem registrarii dioceseos chirographo munitum, Vice-Cancellario coram Congregatione Magistrorum regentium exhibere teneatur. Secutio VII.—Quomodo et unde computandum sit tempus singulis gradibus capessendis præstitutum.

1. Quoniam tempus singulis gradibus capessendis præstitutum alias annorum alias terminorum numero in his ipsis statutis exprimitur, ne qua inde cavillandi ansa subministretur, præsentī statuto cautum est ut ubicunque tempus gradui cuivis præstitutum per annos computatur, eadem temporis mensura in terminos resoluta, singulis annis quatuor terminos deputando, præstituta esse intelligatur. Utpote ubi tres anni requiruntur, duodecim termini, ubi quatuor, sedecim termini intelligendi sunt; et sic in cæteris.

626, 1859.]

2. Insuper in iis gradibus qui a non graduatis primo suscipiuntur, tempus hujusmodi gradui præstitutum per terminos residentiae computandum est.

3. In iis vero gradibus qui a Baccalaureis cujuslibet facultatis capessuntur, a tempore præsentationis ad gradum Baccalaurei in eadem facultate;—

4. In iis tandem gradibus qui gradum Magistralem præsupponunt, a tempore admissionis ad regendum, computandum erit tempus.

5. Denique, quoniam haud pauci singulis terminis unum aut alterum diem in Universitate commorantes officio suo et statutis satisfecisse, et vel sic terminos ad gradum requisitos complevisse se putant, statutum est quod nemo qui nondum gradum aliquem adeptus fuerit, terminos ad gradum suum requisitos complevisse reputandus sit, nisi qui singulis terminis Michaelis et Hilarii per sex septimanas, singulis autem terminis Paschatis et Trinitatis per tres septimanas, vel saltem in duobus hisce terminis conjunctim computatis per dies octo et quadraginta in Universitate commoratus fuerit.

DE CONGREGATIONIBUS MAGISTRORUM REAGENTIUM.

Sectio I.—De tempore et negotiis Congregationum, et de personis ad eas spectantibus.

§. 1. De tempore Congregationum habendarum.

Ut Universitatis negotia, cum quæ ad gratias et gradus spectant, tum alia, cum deliberatione et consilio mature expediantur; statutum est quod, pro more antiquo, in principio cujusque termini Congregatio Magistrorum regentium celebretur, quæ pro arbitrio Vice-Cancellarii a die in diem continuetur, et in ultimo cujusque termini die dissolvatur. Quodque quoties continget hujusmodi Congregationem celebrari, per pulsationem magnæ campanæ statim post horam nonam ante meridiem denunciatur. A cujus pulsationis cessatione dominus Vice-Cancellarius Procuratores et Magistri regentes accedant, seque ad Congregationem celebrandam accingant. Et præeunte Vice-Cancellario et Procuratoribus, habitibus gradui competentibus, altero bedellorum subinde proclamante, "Intretis in Congregationem, Magistri, intretis," omnes domum Congregationibus destinatam ingrediantur, ubi causa Congregationis tunc habendæ per Vice-Cancellarium exposita, ad expedienda negotia debite procedant.

§. 2. De negotiis in domo Congregationis tractandis.

Ordinatum est quod, prout ab antiquo fieri consuevit, in venerabili Congregatione Magistrorum regentium gratiæ sive supplicationes eorum, quos ad gradus scholasticos promoveri par est, proponantur et concedantur. Deinde ut digni et idonei ad gradus , scholasticos præsentedur et admittantur. Item ut ^[v. Add. p. 529, 1856.] Cantabrigienses vel Dublinienses incorporentur, et, si graduati fuerint, ad eundem admittantur gradum et statum apud nos, quo apud suos sunt; et, pro more consueto, viri conditionis et eruditionis spectatæ in singulis facultatibus licentientur, iidemque atque alii, si opus fuerit, literis testimonialibus commendentur; et multa alia, de quibus venerabili huic Congregationi decernendi hactenus potestas fuit, cum matura deliberatione et iudicio expediantur.

Ordinatum est etiam quod, prout de more antiquo observatum fuit, Congregatio regentium consistat e Cancellario sive Vice-Cancellario, et duobus Procuratoribus vel eorum deputatis, et Magistris necessario, atque etiam ad placitum, regentibus. Quodque nihil in hac venerabili Congregatione decernatur, cui Cancellarius, sive Vice-Cancellarius, vel ambo Procuratores sive eorum deputati, vel major pars Magistrorum necessario et ad placitum regentium, qui interfuerint (quorum numerum novenario minorem esse non oportet) consensum non adhibuerint; sed pro non concesso habeatur, si vel Vice-Cancellarius ejusve deputatus, vel ambo Procuratores eorumve deputati, vel major pars Magistrorum necessario et ad placitum regentium dissenserint. Præterquam in electionibus, quas liberas esse volumus, secundum antiquam consuetudinem, per maiorem partem omnium suffragantium.

Ter in anno, non ut antehac semel modo, academici ^[v. Add. p. 765, 1868.] ad incipiendum in aliqua facultate admissi jus regentiæ consequantur; scilicet, post terminos Michaelis, Hilarii, et S. Trinitatis singulos finitos. Primo igitur cujus-libet vacationis die quicunque in termino proxime præterito (terminis Paschatis et S. Trinitatis pro uno habitis) ad incipiendum in aliqua facultate admissi fuerint non solum solenniter incepisse reputentur, sed etiam ad suam in singulis facultatibus regentiam (id est, ad omnes actus necessariæ suæ regentiæ exercendos) admissi esse; si modo eo die nomina sua in promptuarii libro collegii alicujus vel aulæ aut in registro delegatorum scholarium non ascriptorum inscripta habeant. Qui Magistri et Doctores necessario regentes per biennium a singulis diebus præscriptis habeantur. Quo autem ordine ad incipiendum admissi fuerint, eodem senioritatem sortiantur.

§. 5. Qui sunt Magistri regentes ad placitum.

Magistri regentes ad placitum, prout moris fuit antiqui, habeantur, qui ante aliquando rexerunt: professores scilicet et lectores publici, tam regii quam alii. Item Doctores omnes cujuscunque facultatis, in Universitate residentes: necnon omnes collegiorum et aularum præfecti, qui aliquando rexerunt in Artibus, iisque absentibus eorum deputati; item censores scholarium non ascriptorum, iisque absentibus aliquis qui in aliqua facultate rexit ab iis deputatus; item Magistri scholarum; et quicunque in privatis collegiis decanorum vel censorum munus obeunt.

Sectio II.—De admissione ad gradus et status.

§. 1. Conditiones præviæ ad petitionem gratiæ ex parte supplicis.

I. Statutum est primo, ne cujusquam gratia in venerabili domo Congregationis proponatur, nisi qui eo ipso tempore in matricula Universitatis necnon in libro promptuarii collegii vel aulæ alicujus sive in registro delegatorum scholarium non ascriptorum nomen inscriptum habeat; et terminos ad gradum quem ambit requisitos compleverit.

Add. p. 756.

2. Deinde requiritur ut quilibet candidatus, sive pro gradu aliquo supplicans, non solum sit probis moribus, et omnia ad gradum requisita recte compleverit; verum etiam (si gradum Baccalaurei in Artibus, vel in Medicina, vel in Jure Civili capessat), ut secundum [v. Add. p. 840, 1874.] statuta satisfecerit examinadoribus, de quo testimonium a magistro gratiam ipsius proponente, ante gratiam consequendam, per registrarium in domo Congregationis exhibeatur.

3. Candidati omnes pridie saltem ejus diei in quo habenda est Congregatio, (nisi aliquem propter justas causas Vice-Cancellarius excuset,) nomina in libro apud Vice-Cancellarium inscribenda curent: et schedulam nomina continentem bedellus ante Congregationem initam foribus domus Convocationis affigat. [v. Add. p. 743, 1868.]

5. Ante gratiæ petitionem, per schedulam chirographo suo munitam et registrariorum traditam decanus vel censor sive præsentator testetur unusquisque gratiam a collegio suo vel aula sua vel a censoribus scholarium non ascriptorum candidatis seu præsentandis suis concessam esse; et insuper testimonia examinadorum, ubi requisitum fuerit, registrariorum in manus tradat. [v. Add. p. 757, 1868.]

6. Quod si sacris ordinibus initiatus non commorans fuerit, qui gradum in S. Theologia ambit, ne gratiam petere præsumat, nisi prius literæ testimoniales ab episcopo dioceseos ubi degit candidatus signatæ, de conformitate ipsius tum quoad doctrinam tum quoad disciplinam in ecclesia Anglicana receptam palam in domo Congregationis a præsentatore recitatæ sint.

§. 2. Ordo ceremoniarum.

1. Imprimis, Congregatione ineunte, registrarius gratias rite concessas, et eorum, qui gradum Baccalaurei in Artibus vel in Medicina vel in Jure Civili ambient, testimonia exhibita fuisse, palam testetur.

[v. Add. p.
743, 1869.]

2. Quo facto, Procuratorum alter pro iis qui gradus superiores petant, sub peculiaribus formulis supplicet; et post unamquamque petitionem Procuratores suffragia solito modo exquirant: tum nomina eorum qui gradum A. M. ambient recitet Procurator senior, et suffragia exquirantur. Denique nomina eorum qui gradum A. B. ambient recitet Procurator junior; et suffragia similiter exquirantur.

3. Post unamquamque suffragationem Procuratorum alter gratias concessas esse sub hac forma pronunciet: "Hæ gratiæ concessæ sunt, et sic pronunciamus concessas."

[v. Add. p.
757, 1868]

4. Tum præsentatores cujusque facultatis (secundum dignitatem facultatis, ubi sit præsentatio ad eundem gradum in diversis facultatibus, si unus e præsentandis fuerit theologus; alioqui, secundum senioritatem præsentatoris; ubi vero præsentatio fit ad diversos gradus, secundum dignitatem gradus; et in eadem facultate et gradu, secundum senioritatem præsentatorum) ad præsentandum procedant. Et quisque (bedello præeunte, et candidatis proxime sequentibus) domum Congregationis conscendat; et ad superiorem partem domus procedens præsentandos a dextro latere sistat; deinde præsentandos quisque suos coram Vice-Cancellario producat; et cum debita reverentia, sub peculiari formula, Vice-Cancellario et Procuratoribus præsentet. Liceat autem plures qui eundem gradum ambient, sub eadem formula mutatis mutandis præsentare.

5. Postea, Procurator junior præsentatis ad incipiendum in aliqua facultate (excepta Musica,) vel ad Baccalaureatum in S. Theologia, dicet: "(Domini Doctores, Magistri," vel "Domini,) ros dabitis fidem ad observandum statuta, privilegia, consuetudines et libertates istius Universitatis.

Item quod quum admissi fueritis in domum Congregationis et in domum Convocationis, in iisdem bene et fideliter, ad honorem et profectum Universitatis, vos geretis. Et specialiter quod in negotiis quæ ad gratias et gradus spectant non impedietis dignos, nec indignos promovebitis. Add. p. 683.

Item quod in electionibus habendis unum tantum semel et non amplius in singulis scrutiniis scribetis et nominabitis; et quod neminem nominabitis nisi quem habilem et idoneum certo sciveritis vel firmiter credideritis.” Resp. “Do fidem.”

6. Præsentatos autem ad inferiorem gradum aliquem ita admoneat “Vos tenemini ad observandum omnia statuta, privilegia, consuetudines, et libertates istius Universitatis, quatenus ad vos spectent.”

7. Tum ad seniore Procurem se conferant præsentati sive ad incipiendum sive ad Baccalaureatum in S. Theologia, quorum senior declarationem assensus, excerptam ex canone xxxvi^o denuo edito et confirmato in synodo Londini habita anno Domini 1865, clara voce pronuntiet, sicut hic sequitur. Add. p. 813.
[1872.]
[v. Add. p.
770, 1868.]

Declaratio assensus.

“I, A. B., do solemnly make the following declaration. I assent to the thirty-nine articles of religion and to the book of common prayer and of the ordering of bishops, priests, and deacons; and I believe the doctrine of the United Church of England and Ireland, as therein set forth, to be agreeable to the Word of God.”

Atque illico alii omnes admoneantur a Procurem seniore formula solenni “Eandem declarationem quam præstitit A. B., in persona sua, vos præstabit in personis vestris, et quilibet vestrum in persona sua.” Deinde testentur Procurem omnes sic admonitos declarationi eidem rite subscripsisse. [v. Add. p.

[v. Add. p. 770, 1868.] 8. Qua sic facta declaratione, a Vice-Cancellario sub
[v. Add. p. 743, 1868.] peculiaribus formulis admittantur omnes candidati. Si ad statum Studiosi vel gradum Baccalaureatus admittantur, stantes Vice-Cancellarii verba accipiant:—Si vero præsententur ad incipiendum in aliqua facultate, genubus ad Vice-Cancellarii pedes flexis, capitibus deinde per Vice-Cancellarium libro tactis, sub sollemni verborum forma admittantur.

9. Quibus sic peractis, domo egrediantur, et extra cancellos habitum competentem gradui ad quem admissi sunt induentes, illico, bedello præeunte, in domum redeant; et præstita Vice-Cancellario reverentia discedant.

Sectio IV.—De iis quorum gratiæ negantur.

1. Singulis Magistris regentibus gratiam alicujus candidati ter negare permittitur: Procuratores vero eandem gratiam negatam esse silentio tantum indicent, et si plures gratiæ simul proponantur, eas quæ concessæ sunt pronuncient, negatas silentio prætereant.

2. Ter, proximis quibusque Congregationibus, ejusdem candidati supplicationem liceat continuare: re-censeatur item in singulis Congregationibus quota vice, prima, secunda, tertia, quartave supplicetur.

3. Post gratiam tertia vice negatam negationis causa Vice-Cancellario et Procuratoribus eodem die a Magistro denegante ostendatur, et probationes coram eisdem summarie proferantur; quæ causa una cum probatione, celato objicientis nomine, in proxima Congregatione publicetur; in qua, si et Vice-Cancellario, et Procuratoribus, et majori parti regentium justa videatur, tum gratia denegata censeatur; et supplicatio ejusdem in annum integrum continuetur. Si vero causa minus justa aut probabilis iis videatur, gratia quarto proposita, si majori Congregationis parti ita visum fuerit, pro concessa habeatur.

Sectio VI.—De incorporatione.

1. Si quis eorum qui in matriculam Universitatis Cantabrigiensis aut Dubliniensis relati fuerint, in aliquod collegium vel aulam Universitatis Oxoniensis admissus sit, ei liceat huic Universitati incorporari.

2. Proviso ut, si graduatus fuerit, per novem terminos, et uniuscujusque termini per partem saltem majorem, ante primum gradum susceptum intra suam academiam bona fide commoratus sit.

4. Incorporandus si sit in S. Theologia graduatus declarationi assensus, juxta statutum sect. III. §. 2. hujusce tituli, subscribat.

5. Quibus sic peractis, et gratia eodem modo quo alias fieri consuevit pronunciata, præsentatio incorporandi ad hunc modum sequitur:

“Juris Civilis,” vel “Medicinæ” in academia Cantabrigiensi” (vel “Dubliniensi), ut sit eodem gradu, statu et dignitate apud nos Oxonienses, quibus ornatus est apud suos Cantabrigienses” (vel “Dublinienses”).

Et post præsentationem (si incorporandus Magister sit in Artibus, vel Baccalaureus in S. Theologia, vel in aliqua facultate Doctor) his verbis ab altero Procuratorum admoneatur:

“Magister, tu dabis fidem ad observandum statuta, privilegia, consuetudines et libertates istius Universitatis.”

7. Denique a Vice-Cancellario sic admittatur: “Magister” (vel “Domine Doctor,” vel “Domine), ego admitto te ad eundem statum, gradum et dignitatem hic apud nos Oxonienses, quibus ornatus es apud tuos Cantabrigienses” (vel “Dublinienses).”

8. Eadem quoque gratiæ, præsentationis, et admissionis formula, mutatis mutandis, adhibenda est, cum aliquis nondum graduatus terminorum apud academiam Cantabrigiensem vel Dubliniensem rationem sibi apud nos Oxonienses imputandam velit.

[v. Add. p.

9. Cautum tamen est ne quis graduatus ex alia academia incorporetur, nisi de expresso consensu Concilii Hebdomadalis.

3. Si quis vero Doctor vel Magister Artium ab Universitate discesserit et postea jus suffragii recuperare voluerit, is, postquam unum et viginti dies in uno aliquo termino continuos vel discontinuos personaliter resederit, se coram Vice-Cancellario in Convocatione sive Congregatione sistat, testimonium residentiae a praefecto domus suae vel ejus vicem gerente adducat, et decem libras solvat; nisi feoda omnia ab eo usque die quo ab Universitate discesserit accrescentia malit solvere; quibus peractis Vice-Cancellarius eum ad jus suffragandi in domo Convocationis admittat, sub hac forma, "Domine Doctor" (vel "Magister," vel "Domini Doctores" [v. If any amendment is adopted by Congregation, the Hebdomadal Council, or any twelve Members of Congregation, shall be at liberty, subject as hereafter mentioned, to propose in such manner and after such interval as the University may by statute appoint, any further amendment or amendments in the statute in question.

5. No amendment shall be submitted to Congregation which in the judgment of the Chancellor or in his absence of the Vice-Chancellor or his deputy shall be inconsistent with or irrelevant to the principle of the statute proposed to be amended as stated in the preamble. And no amendment in the preamble of a statute shall in any case be made by Congregation.

6. The word AMENDMENT shall be taken to include proposals for the omission of clauses or the addition of new clauses.

7. Every clause in which an amendment may be adopted, shall be submitted to Congregation as finally amended; and every statute, after its principle has been accepted by Congregation, and after the amendments to it (if any) have been accepted or rejected by Congregation, shall be submitted to Congregation as a whole for acceptance or rejection.

8. The Members of Congregation shall upon every occasion, on which any question whatever is submitted to Congregation, have the right to speak thereon in the English tongue, subject to such regulations as the University may make by statute for the due order of debate.

9. No statute which has once been promulgated in Congregation shall be withdrawn in any of its stages in Congregation*.

* This statute received the approval of her Majesty in Council on March 31st, 1870. Clause 3, as amended, was approved by her Majesty in Council on June 25, 1872.

Add. p. 792.
[1870.] §. 3. Regulations under which Statutes are to be submitted to the Congregation of the University.

1. Every statute as framed by the Hebdomadal Council shall contain a preamble stating shortly the principle of the measure, and an enacting part consisting of one or more clauses or sections carrying out in detail the principle of the statute as stated in the preamble.

2. Notice of the promulgation of a statute shall be issued at least five clear days before the day of meeting of Congregation.

Add. p. 820.
[1872.] 3. Notice of amendments shall be given viva voce by the proposer or by some one on his behalf in Congregation on the occasion of promulgation either before, or immediately after, the question is put; and, in case the preamble of the statute is approved by Congregation, the proposed amendments shall be the same day transmitted to the Registrar in writing signed by the proposer and seconder.

4. The Chancellor or in his absence the Vice-Chancellor or his Deputy shall report to the Council all amendments which in his judgment are in accordance with the regulations relating to the proposal of amendments to statutes in Congregation, and the Council shall thereupon order them to be printed with the names of the respective proposers and seconds.

5. The Council may at the same time and on the same paper print any amendments which they may think fit to propose, as amendments proposed by Council, and such amendments may be moved in Congregation by any Member of Council.

Add. p. 820.
[1872.] 6. All amendments shall be printed in the order of the clause or part of the clause to which each refers, and a printed notice containing all the proposed amendments shall be issued not less than three clear days before the Congregation at which the same are to be taken into consideration. But during the debate in Congregation the mover and seconder of any amendment shall have power, with the unanimous consent of the House, either to postpone the consideration of that amendment until a later period of the debate, or to divide the amendment into two or more parts, and take a separate vote upon such several portions.

7. All clauses with reference to which no notice of amendment has been given shall be deemed to be accepted by Congregation.

8. If any amendment shall be adopted, a notice shall be issued containing the terms of the statute as amended, and the amendments which have been made in Congregation shall be printed in Italic type, and within two clear days after the issuing of such notice any further amendments either proposed by Council or drawn up and signed by twelve Members of Congregation, subject to the regulations as to amendments to the preamble and clauses of a statute, shall be printed, and a notice thereof issued, and such further amendments shall on a day not less than three clear days after the issuing of such notice be submitted to Congregation. On the occasion when the clauses of a Statute as amended are to be put to Congregation, the Council shall have power, after having given three clear days' notice, either to propose amendments, or to submit to Congregation the choice between contradictory or inconsistent provisions which may have been introduced into the Statute. Add. p. 820.

9. If no amendment be proposed, or when all the proposed amendments and further amendments (if any) have been considered in Congregation, and the clauses of the statute finally settled, the question that the statute do pass shall be submitted to Congregation on a subsequent day of which not less than three clear days' notice shall have been given.

10. If when such last-mentioned question is before Congregation, there be at any time fewer than twenty Members present, or if the time be past the hour of 4 P.M., any two members may demand that the question be adjourned to a subsequent day, to be fixed by the Chancellor, or, in his absence, by the Vice-Chancellor or his Deputy, and the question shall be adjourned accordingly.

11. Whenever it shall seem expedient to the Hebdomadal Council, resolutions containing the chief points of a proposed statute may be submitted to Congregation before the statute itself is framed.

12. In the event of such resolutions being submitted to Congregation and approved, Congregation may, on a motion duly proposed and seconded therein, refer them to a select committee which shall report to Council on the provisions of a statute for carrying into effect the said resolutions. The Vice-Chancellor shall always be a member of such committee. The number of the other members of such Committee shall be fixed by Congregation; half shall be nominated by Council, and half elected by Congregation.

13. All notices hereinbefore required to be issued shall be given by affixing a paper to the door of the Convocation House.

14. Every vote in Congregation shall be taken immediately after the conclusion of the debate (if any) on the question to be voted upon, subject to the provisions of clause 10.

§. 4. De statutis et decretis in domo Convocationis condendis.

1. Si quando ex usu academice futurum videbitur aliquid statuere vel decernere, priusquam statutum quodvis vel decretum suffragiis Magistrorum regentium et non-regentium permittatur, primo in hebdomadali concilio tractetur negotium.

2. Atque ubi, re mature perpensa, in eo convenerit de verbis conceptis sub quibus statutum vel decretum condendum videbitur, statutum quodvis post justam monitionem in Congregatione Universitatis Oxoniensis promulgetur, dein in Congregatione iterum post spatium tridui integrum ad minimum proponatur, et, si a Congregatione acceptum fuerit, post integrum septem dierum spatium ad minimum Convocationi submittatur.

3. In qua iisdem verbis quibus in Congregatione propositum fuerat, per registrarium mandato Vice-Cancellarii palam recitetur, et de eodem regentium et non-regentium suffragia rogentur. Si autem in domo Convocationis approbatum fuerit, vim suam ex eo die, nisi aliter in ipso statuto provisum sit, sortiatur.

4. Decretum vero quodvis, postquam a concilio hebdomadali approbatum fuerit, immediate, sine Congregationis auctoritate, Convocationi post justam monitionem submitatur.

5. Quaecunque negotia ad legem generalem dirigi possint, per statuta administrari volumus. Sin autem casus singuli inciderint, quibus illico providendum sit, his per decreta liceat occurrere.

Porro, cum statutorum rigorem modo privatis hominum commoditatibus, modo necessitatibus ipsorum attemperari quandoque expediat, liceat his casibus decreto consulere.

Scilicet, si qui hujus Universitatis alumni perspectæ probitatis et eruditionis viri, quique per quindecim annorum spatium (computandum ab admissione eorum ad regendum) theologiæ operam navarunt, præstitis prius pro utrovis gradu requisitis exercitiis, gradus cumulare sive simul capessere desiderent.

Vel si gradum academicum in quemvis decreto aut diplomate conferre placuerit.

Vel si in prælatos quosvis, magnates vel nobiles, aliisve nominibus illustres viros, honoris causa gradus academicos, sive intra academiam, sive (missis qui Cancellarium, Procuratores et Magistros regentes præsentent) extra academiam, conferre placuerit.

Et universim si qui alii fuerint casus disciplinæ academicæ non repugnantes.

Add. p. 633.
[1860.]

6. Si quod vero delictum inciderit contra quod speciali nullo statuto cautum fuerit, Vice-Cancellarius cum consensu concilii hebdomadalis pro arbitrio poenam irroget; donec speciali aliquo statuto contra hujusmodi delictum provisum fuerit.

7. Ut statuta et decreta omnia in posterum condenda fideliter custodiantur, registrarium registra duo ad hunc usum idonea comparet, in quorum utroque unum exemplar, seu manu scriptum seu typis mandatum, statuti cujusvis et decreti inserendum curet. Hæc autem exemplaria priusquam inserantur Vice-Cancellarius et Procuratores diligenter inspiciant, et si nullus in iis insit error, chirographo suo muniant; quæ deinde authentica exemplaria statuti cujusvis et decreti habeantur.

Horum registorum custodiam habeat registrarius donec ad umbilicum perducta erunt, ubi alterum in archivis Universitatis, alterum in bibliotheca Bodleiana reponatur.

Interea, ea inspiciendi copia fiat a registrario id volentibus academicis.

§. 5. De electionibus in domo Convocationis habendis.

1. Every election to any office or place or benefice in the gift of the University shall be holden in full Term, unless the Vice-Chancellor for some urgent reason shall order otherwise. In the case of any office terminable at a certain time, and in the case of any holder of an office giving notice in writing of his intention to resign such office at a certain date, a Convocation or Congregation (as the case may be) shall be holden, for an election to supply the vacancy, at any time within a period not exceeding four months before the day fixed for such termination or resignation as the case may be, and such election shall take effect immediately on the occurrence of the vacancy. The Vice-Chancellor shall give twelve days' notice, if it conveniently can be done, of every election.

2. No candidate shall have votes reckoned to him at any election, unless he shall have been nominated in writing six clear days beforehand by two members of Convocation or Congregation (as the case may be) at the least, or three clear days beforehand by six members of Convocation or Congregation (as the case may be) at the least. All nominations, dated and signed, shall be delivered at the Registrar's office within the times above prescribed, and shall be published by him forthwith.

3. If so many candidates only shall have been duly nominated as are sufficient to fill the vacancies, or if candidates withdraw after having been nominated so as to leave so many only as are sufficient to fill the vacancies, the Vice-Chancellor shall declare the candidates nominated, and not having withdrawn, duly elected. If at the time of election there shall be a greater number of vacancies than the number of candidates nominated and not having withdrawn, the Vice-Chancellor and Proctors jointly shall have power to nominate a candidate for each vacancy remaining to be filled up, and such candidates shall then be declared to be duly elected.

4. These provisions respecting notice of elections and respecting the nomination of candidates shall apply so far as possible mutatis mutandis to elections in the Congregation of the University.

De Scrutinio in domo Convocationis faciendo.

5. Si opus sit ut suffragia ferantur, fiat scrutinium per scripta, in quo (Vice-Cancellario præsidente) Procuratores scrutatores erunt. Quo quidem in scrutinio, ubi Vice-Cancellarius et Procuratores suffragati fuerint, quisque Doctorum, Magistrorum regentium et non-regentium secundum ordinem senioritatis (quantum fieri potest) accedat, et (Procuratoribus a latere Vice-Cancellarii utrinque sedentibus) Vice-Cancellario tradat tabulam in qua nomen suum et candidati cui suffragatur inscripserit, in hanc formam,

[v. Add. p.

7. Cum autem longius in electione processum fuerit, defecerintque qui suffragentur; priusquam scrutatores suffragiorum numerum ineant, superior facultatis Artium bedellus per domum Convocationis ad suffragandum alta voce præconizabit; "Magistri ad suffragandum, prima vice;" deinde ex intervallo unius horæ quad-

9. Si duo vel plures æqualem suffragiorum numerum sortiti sint; si graduati fuerint, eorum senior, si graduati non fuerint, tunc is in quem Cancellarius (vel Vice-Cancellarius pro tempore existens) consenserit, pro electo habeatur. Electus vero ne ad munus suum admittatur nisi post triduum. Interim tabulæ in custodia Vice-Cancellarii conserventur. Et si qua de suffragiis latis controversia orta fuerit, cujus candidatus quivis Vice-Cancellario et Procuratoribus probaverit causam esse rationabilem, scrutatores iterum scrutinium tabularum ineant, et is demum electus habeatur, in quem post hoc scrutinium major pars suffragantium consensisse comperta sit; et ad officium suum (peractis præstitisque singulis quæ ad hujusmodi admissionem requirentur) e vestigio, si præsens fuerit, admittatur.

§. 6. De delegatorum nominatione et munere.

1. Cum varia Universitatis negotia a paucis citius et commodius, quam a pluribus, expendantur; eo nomine statutum est ut hæc selectis quibusdam viris per domum Convocationis delegentur, qui de iisdem deliberandi, vel deliberandi et statuendi, prout prædictæ domui videbitur, potestatem habeant, et delegati appellentur; quos delegatos nominandi jus penes eos sit quibus per statuta commissum fuerit; penes autem Procuratores sit, si non aliter statutum fuerit.

2. E Doctoribus Magistris regentibus et non-regentibus seligantur delegati, qui impositum sibi onus subire teneantur.

3. Si quis delegatus e vivis excesserit, vel in Universitate commorari et domum suam habere desierit, alius continuo in ejus locum eadem auctoritate subrogetur.

4. Cum opus sit nonnunquam delegari quibusdam prosequenda negotia extra Universitatis præinctum; hi, quoties id usu venerit, ad mandatum Vice-Cancellarii et Procuratorum singuli ad hujusmodi negotia pro virili prosequenda (modo fiat expensis Universitatis) paratos se præsent.

5. Nullum statutum quo numerus delegatorum quorumvis vel curatorum præter Vice-Cancellarium et Procuratores vel præter Vice-Cancellarium præscribitur ita est interpretandum, ut delegati cujusvis vel curatoris ad officium Vice-Cancellarii vel Procuratoris admissi locus pro vacanti putetur. [v. Add. p. 803, 1870.]

De delegatis preli.

Delegati preli sint decem, præter Vice-Cancellarium; quorum quinque sint in posterum perpetui delegati, reliqui quinque post septimum annum officio suo cedant, possint tamen iterum eligi. Eligantur et nominentur a Vice-Cancellario et duobus Procuratoribus et Doctoribus et Magistris regentibus et non-regentibus, quotiescunque aliquis eorum qui nunc sunt delegati preli, vel eorum qui posthac electi fuerint, officio cesserit, manentibus interea iis qui nunc sunt perpetuis delegatis. Quumprimum vero horum qui nunc sunt numerus ad quatuor redactus sit, tum delegati eligant e seipsis unum, qui sit perpetuus delegatus quintus: et sic deinceps subrogetur alius e ceteris, sive junioribus, delegatis, ad supplendum perpetuo numerum quinque perpetuorum delegatorum. [v. Add. p. 747, 1868.]

De statis delegatis pro academici privilegii tuerdis et conservandis. Add. p. 94. [1768.]

1. Cum ex privilegiorum nostrorum ignorance multa mala ac dispendia huic Universitati antehac contigerint, cumque in variis concertationibus cum municipibus Oxoniensibus aliisque nostrorum privilegiorum adversariis, novos delegatos designari haud e re academici esse usu compertum sit: Add. p. 95. [1768.]

2. Placuit Universitati statuere et decernere ut Vice-

Cancellarius, Procuratores et custos archivorum pro tempore existentes, cum quatuor aliis cujuscunque facultatis Doctoribus aut Artium Magistris, per Vice-Cancellarium et Procuratores aut per majorem partem eorundem nominandis, et deinceps a domo Convocationis approbandis, in posterum privilegiorum nostrorum curam et tutelam suscipiant: qui, ut statim delegati, de negotiis omnibus eo spectantibus, cum relatione ad domum Convocationis et approbatione ejusdem, statuunt et deliberent. Quinque insuper delegati a Procuratoribus in prima Convocatione post admissionem suam, cum approbatione Vice-Cancellarii et domus Convocationis, quotannis nominentur; qui ut statim delegati anno insequente, cum approbatione illius domus Convocationis, una cum prædictis aliis delegatis perpetuis res omnes ad privilegia spectantes audiant et determinent. Ad quod munus suscipiendum et sedulo fideliterque exequendum singuli se fide data Universitati firmiter teneri noverint.

3. Cum autem aliquos ex hisce delegatis mox nominandis aut eorum successoribus fatis concedere, vel alias Universitate prorsus excedere, vel cum consensu domus Convocationis officio abdicare contigerit, alii continuo in ipsorum locum eadem auctoritate, ut præfatum est, subrogentur.

4. Si vero horum major pars in Universitate præsens non fuerit, aut propter adversam valetudinem præsto adesse non poterit; quotiescunque ex improvviso de privilegiis agatur, et res moram non tulerit, Procuratores, vel eorum alter, cum consensu Vice-Cancellarii, totidem in locum absentium ad præsens subrogabunt quot ad majorem partem explendam suffecerint.

5. Hi autem delegati bis ad minimum in anno, nempe in prima Hilarii et Trinitatis pleni termini hebdomada, aut sæpius si res tulerit, die et hora a Vice-Cancellario pridie constituenda, in delegatorum camera aut (si justa de causa ita expedire videbitur) in alio loco idoneo convenient, de privilegiis et juribus Universitatis tuendis et defendendis consulturi. Cum nonnulla sint delicta, quæ, contra statuta hujus Universitatis admissa, graduum privatione plectuntur; alia vero quæ, licet alibi commissa, tamen propter infame supplicii quo vindicantur genus, detrahi prius insignia academica, et delinquentes exauctorari postulant; ne stigmata delinquentium personis merito inurenda simul graduum academicorum dignitati labeculam aspergant; unde aliqua ad ipsam Universitatem redundet infamia:

DE CONGREGATIONIBUS ET CONVOCA- TIONIBUS STATUTA GENERALIA.

§. 1. Congregationibus alii necessario alii libere intersunt; Convocationibus singuli, rite moniti, tenentur per fidem interesse.

1. Statutum est quod singuli Doctores et Magistri necessario regentes (quotquot infra ambitum academici commorantur) statim a cessatione pulsationis solennis campanæ ad Congregationem accedent; cui a principio ad finem intersint, nec nisi venia a Cancellario aut Vice-Cancellario impetrata discedant: regentes vero ad placitum, quoties specialiter requisiti fuerint, aut alias pro arbitrio suo, intersint.

2. Si quis ex necessario regentibus vel venire neglexerit, vel secus quam oportet discesserit, pro prima vice uno solido, pro secunda duobus, pro tertia tribus solidis per Cancellarium vel Vice-Cancellarium mulctetur. Et si, debita præcedente monitione, ulterius in negligentia perseveraverit, a domo Congregationis penitus excludatur.

3. Ad magnam vero Convocationem singuli Doctores et Magistri regentes et non-regentes, debite præmoniti, venire, ibique, dum negotia ad Universitatem spectantia tractantur, permanere (nisi justam absentiae causam, a Vice-Cancellario requisiti, ipsi approbaverint) noverint se fide data Universitati obligari.

§. 2. De ordine sedendi in Convocatione et Congregatione.

Statuit Universitas et decrevit quod in omnibus Congregationibus et Convocationibus Cancellarius vel Vice-Cancellarius, in cathedra, locum teneat principalem in medio. Deinceps ex utraque parte Cancel-larii vel Vice-Cancellarii, sedeant primo Doctores in S. Theologia: deinde ex utraque parte Theologorum ad dextram Doctores in Medicina, ad sinistram Doctores Juris Civilis; salva tamen consuetudine, quæ hodie inter juristas et medicos obtinet, quod qui senior est (id est, prius præsentatus ad eundem gradum) in sua facultate, præ juniore in altera loci seu dignitatis prærogativam vendicet, ac obtineat. Cui etiam consuetudini ne quicquam eo nomine derogatum volumus, si forte in hisce statutis vel rubricis, inter nominandas ex ordine ambas facultates, unam alteri sæpius præponi vel prænominari contigerit. Juxta vero Cancellarium vel Vice-Cancellarium, utrinque paulo inferius, locum consuetum habeant Procuratores; et ad latera utriusque domus, Magistri facultatis Artium absque anterioris loci vendicatione: præterquam quod collegiorum et aularum præfectis, si qui sunt Magistri Artium duntaxat et non Doctores, præ aliis Magistris locus superior concedatur.

Statutum est quod quilibet, verba facturus in domo Congregationis et Convocationis, Latino utatur eloquio, nisi cuiquam (negotio sic requirente) Cancellarius, vel in decretis proponendis Vice-Cancellarius, lingua ^[v. Quodque a dicacitate, præsertim opprobriis, omni indecenti verbo aut facto penitus abstineant: sub poena quod, si quis in præmissis deliquerit, a domo Congregationis vel Convocationis, judicio Cancellarii vel Vice-Cancellarii et Procuratorum, pro illo die, vel (si majori parti domus videbitur) pro longiore tempore excludatur: et insuper obnoxius esto poenis sancitis in sta- ^[v. essent: proviso tamen, ne unquam duo Procuratores simul existant ex eodem collegio vel aula.

2. In eligendo Procuratore, siquis elector duobus simul collegiis, vel collegio et aulæ adscriptus sit, suffragetur hic in eo solummodo collegio, vel ea aula, in quo debita fisco academico solvat vel una pensione dissolverit: et ne quis, postquam semel in aliquo col-legio vel aula eligendi Procuratoris particeps esse potuerit, inter electores in alio collegio vel aula censeatur, nisi ab hujus domus societate prorsus discesserit.
Aulæ autem principalis vel vice-principalis, collegio alicui adscriptus, censeatur inter electores aulæ solius.

3. Procuratorem in unoquoque collegio, prout vices postulant, rite et legitime electum decernimus, quem major pars omnium suffragantium nominabit. Quod si duo, pari uterque numero suffragiorum, nominentur, ille pro electo habeatur, quem præfectus vel, eo absente seu sede vacante, ejus vicem gerens nominaverit. Si plures nominentur, nec unus aliquis majorem partem omnium suffragiorum retulerit, nec eodem die electio absoluta et ante horam nonam vespertinam Vice-Cancellario renunciata fuerit, collegium istud jus præsentandi ista vice amittat, et ad Vice-Cancellarium spectet nominatio; qui intra septimanam personam aptam et secundum condiciones superius assignatas habilem in Procuratorem nominet.

Add. p. 574.

4. Senior inter principales aularum in Universitate præsentēs, quoties electio ad aulas redeat, aulares qui jus suffragandi habeant, missa ad cujusque aulæ principalem triduo ante electionem monitione, in suam aulam convocet, et in electione eodem jure fruatur et eodem munere fungatur, quibus præfectus collegii.

5. Si Procuratorum aliquem mori contigerit, vel quavis de causa ante annum suum finitum officio suo cedere, locum ejus suppleat alius, habilis et idoneus, per præfectum collegii vel aulæ ejus, seu, hoc absente aut vacante sede, per vicarium intra septimanam post mortem vel cessionem nominandus: quod si talis non exstiterit, tunc Vice-Cancellarius aliquem habilem in Procuratorem substituat, ut supra.

6. Si ambiguitas aliqua vel dubium aliquod præter prænominata occurrat de electione modo præfinito in collegiis vel aulis facienda; ne gliscente inter partes discordia scandalum exinde oriatur, per Vice-Cancellarium, Doctorem in Theologia seniore (modo sit præfectus collegii alicujus) in Universitate præsentem, et præfectum collegii ad quod electio tunc pertinet, vel aulæ principalem seniore, si ab aulis eligendus sit Procurator, vel horum duos, quorum collegii præfectum unum esse volumus, controversia ejusmodi terminetur. Quod si præfectus collegii antedictus tunc temporis Vice-Cancellarii locum obtinuerit; tum in Theologia Doctores duos maxime seniores, collegiorum vero, ut præfertur, præfectos, sibi assumat, quibuscum causæ istius cognitionem habeat.

2. Mox novi Procuratores, prius a collegiis suis, vel a collegiis vel aulis in quibus electi sunt, per præfectos, reliquis comitantibus et præeunte bedellorum altero, habitu gradui et officio competente, solenniter deducti domino Vice-Cancellario per præfectos collegiorum suorum, vel collegiorum vel aularum in quibus electi sunt, eorumve deputatos, ad officia sua hac forma præsententur.

Add. p. 575. [1856.]

4. In senioris Procuratoris locum assumatur, qui ordine prior inceperit.

5. Tunc vero uterque eorum spondeat, verba præeunte Vice-Cancellario, sub hac forma: [v. Add. p. 771, 1868.]

6. "Magister, tu dabis fidem, quod ea omnia et singula quæ ad officium senioris" (vel "junioris") Procuratoris istius Universitatis spectant, bene et fideliter et indifferenter, quatenus te et officium tuum concernunt, omnimoda partialitate seposita, durante tuo officio exequeris; et executionem eorundem per deputatos tuos, quantum in te est, procurabis." Resp. "Do fidem." [v. Add. p. 771, 1868.]

8. "Egregie Magister, ego auctoritate mea, et totius Universitatis admitto te ad officium Procuratoris istius Universitatis in annum sequentem; necnon ad reliqua omnia præstanda et peragenda, quæ ad munus vel officium Procuratoris spectant." Mox acceptis officiorum insignibus Procuratorum sellas capessant. Deinde quatuor Magistros, qui tres annos ad minimum a suscepto Magisterii gradu compleverint, quos sibi deputatos adsciscere placuerit, singuli binos nominent. Qui si præsentés fuerint, illico, exigente Vice-Cancellario, eadem qua ipsi Procuratores sponsione mutatis mutandis astringantur; alioqui, in proxima Congregatione. Quorum muneris sit, inter alia, concionum tempore plateas et loca publica perlustrare; ne juniores tunc licenter obambulent.

[v. Add. p. 771, 1868.]

9. Dimissa autem Convocatione, Procuratores una cum Magistris Vice-Cancellarium domum suam deducant; deinde Magistri utrumque Procuratorem, primo seniore, dein juniorem, bedellis præeuntibus ad collegia sua deducant.

Feoda autem a scholaribus responsuris vel examinandis accepta Procuratorum utervis, schedula sua nominum unaquaque completa, cistæ academicæ curatoribus statim tradat.

De clericis mercatus.

Quo melius et auspiciatius provideantur ea quæ ad communis fori procuracionem et gubernationem conducunt; ordinatum est quod inter cæteros Universitatis officarios duo clerici mercatus, vel e principalibus aularum, Artium Magistris, vel Baccalaureis S. Theologiæ, Medicinæ, aut Juris, assignentur; unus per summum Universitatis Cancellarium, alter per Vice-Cancellarium, in prima Congregatione post festum Michaelis Archangeli, annuatim deputandus. Horum munus est omnia ad victus necessitatem et commodum spectantia curare, et, quantum in ipsis est, in assisa panis, cervisiæ et vini, in mensuris et ponderibus, in annonæ qualitate et pretio, ne qua fraus fiat, providere. §. 2.—Of the Curators of the University Chest.

1. The Curators of the University Chest shall be the Vice-Chancellor, the Proctors, and six Members of Convocation appointed as follows: namely, two elected by the Congregation of the University of Oxford; two elected by the Hebdomadal Council; and two appointed by the Vice-Chancellor and Proctors, subject to the approval of Convocation; each holding office for six years, and re-eligible; the appointment of one in each of the three classes taking place every third year, as soon as conveniently may be after the election of Members of the Hebdomadal Council.

The first election under this statute shall take place in the year 1872. In case of any vacancy by death, resignation, or otherwise, occurring in the interval between any two triennial elections, or previous to that of 1872, the new Curator appointed to fill such vacancy shall be appointed in the same manner as the person whom he succeeds, and shall hold office only during the period for which that person would have held it. The present Curators shall hold office for the periods for which they were severally elected.

2. The Curators of the Chest shall collect all Rents, Tithes, Dividends, Dues, Fees, Benefactions, and other Revenues of the University, whether belonging to the General Fund or to special Funds, except in cases otherwise provided for; and shall carry the sums so received to the credit of the accounts to which they respectively belong.

3. The Curators shall pay out of the moneys received by them—

a. All charges imposed on the University by law, by ancient custom, or by virtue of any trust, and all payments authorized by Statute or Decree of Convocation, the expenses of their own office, and all expenses ~~and~~ outgoings incident to the management of property belonging to or held in trust by the University as hereinafter mentioned;

b. All expenses incurred under the authority of the Vice-Chancellor in ascertaining and protecting the rights and privileges of the University; in the execution of the powers conferred by the third section of the Act 6 George IV, chap. xcvi; in providing things necessary for the meetings of Convocation and Congregation, for public Lectures, Exercises, and Examinations; and in printing public Notices, Lists, and other Papers.

c. All such charges and expenses not included under any of the above heads as the Vice-Chancellor shall certify in writing to be required for the business of the University and proper in his judgment to be paid out of the University Chest.

Add. p. 843.

4. The Curators shall keep accounts of their receipts and payments with proper Cash-Books and Ledgers ; shall once a year prepare balance sheets as well of the General Fund as of special Funds, showing the relation between Income and Expenditure, and shall draw up an Abstract of the Account of the General Fund of the University, to be laid, when certified by the Auditors, before Convocation.

5. For the investment of the money of the University, whether belonging to its General Fund or to special Funds, either real or Government securities may be chosen, or any of those securities which the Lord Chancellor of England shall from time to time approve for the investment of cash under the control of the Chancery Division of the High Court of Judicature in virtue of the power given to him by the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth of Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-eight, section ten ; and the investment thereof may be varied from time to time with the consent of Convocation. Provided that the Curators shall never employ any capital money, which may come into their hands by reason of the termination of any investment, for the payment of expenses of any kind which ought to be defrayed out of annual revenue, unless they shall be specially empowered to do so by Convocation. The Curators shall at their discretion from time to time invest in any of the securities above mentioned such portions of annual revenue as shall not be required for immediate use.

6. The Curators shall take charge of all public Buildings of the University the superintendence of which is not specially provided for ; and shall defray the cost of ordinary repairs. They shall also, except in cases for which special provision is made, have the charge and management of all estates, lands, houses, tithes, and other property either belonging to or held in trust by the University. They shall take care that all buildings, fences and other appurtenances of such Estates be maintained in proper repair. They shall have power to order drainage works, and such other permanent improvements as they may deem

Add. p. 820 expedient. They may advance without interest to [1872.] Trust Estates from time to time such money as in their judgment may be required for improvements and repairs. They shall take care that proper surveys and valuations of the Estates be made from time to time, and maps when necessary; and shall see that the Estates be let at proper rents and under suitable conditions. They shall defray, and charge on the several Funds, all expenses of such administration, including those incurred in visiting and surveying, and in collecting rents; and may also pay such annual subscriptions as they may think fit to schools and other local charities in places where property belonging to or held in trust by the University is situate.
 Premiums of Insurance on buildings or other property may be paid at the discretion of the Curators either to any Public Insurance Office, or to a special Fund maintained for that purpose.

7. The Curators may appoint a Secretary to be approved by Convocation on such conditions as to duties and tenure as they shall think fit. He shall
 Add. p. 844 receive a yearly salary of four hundred pounds, [1875] which after two years' service may be increased; if the Curators think fit, at the rate of fifty pounds yearly, until it arrives at a maximum of six hundred pounds. The present Secretary shall have the benefit of this clause as if he had been appointed under its provisions. The Curators may also employ a Clerk or Clerks for the business of their office, on such terms as shall appear to them proper.

8. Wherever in the statutes or elsewhere it is ordered that moneys be received or paid by the Vice-Chancellor on account of the University, it is to be understood that such moneys shall be received and paid by the Curators of the University Chest.

§ 3. De annuis debitis colligendis.

Quo facilius et certius annua debita colligantur, quater quotannis, videlicet, intra quindenam a festo Annunciationis Beatæ Mariæ Virginis, ab ultimo die

termini S. Trinitatis, a festo S. Michaelis et omnium Angelorum, a festo S. Thomæ Apostoli, ex unoquoque collegio et aula ad cistæ academicæ curatores transmittatur, præfecti domus vel bursarii chirographo munitus, omnium academicorum catalogus qui singulis diebus supra dictis nomina sua in promptuarii libro istius domus habuerint inscripta. Pari ratione academicorum nulli collegio vel aulæ ascriptorum catalogus per delegatos scholarium non ascriptorum transmittatur. Quibus in catalogis seorsim ponantur nomina, primo, eorum qui suffragii jure in domo Convocationis fruuntur, secundo, eorum qui, licet gradu A.M. aut superiore aliquo insigniti sint, tamen isto jure quacunque de causa non fruuntur. Siglis insuper propriis notentur nomina eorum qui una pensione debita omnia academica dissolverint, eorum qui feoda Universitati debita in alio quopiam collegio vel aula persolvere soleant, necnon eorum (si qui sint) qui monitioni de feodis non persolutis per præfectum domus suæ vel bursarium aut per dictos delegatos transmissæ nondum paruerint: quibus solum exceptis feoda a cæteris omnibus debita una cum singulis catalogis transmissis persolvantur. Monitio autem unicuique transmittatur qui intra quindenam a singulis diebus præscriptis feoda Universitati debita non persolverit.

§. 4. Of the Auditors of Accounts.

1. There shall be three Auditors of Accounts, who shall be Members of Convocation, elected by Convocation, holding office for three years, and re-eligible. The appointment of one of the three shall take place every year in Michaelmas Term before the end of October. No Curator of the University Chest shall be eligible as Auditor.

The first election under this statute shall take place in the year 1871. In case of any vacancy by death, resignation, or otherwise, occurring in the interval between any two annual elections, or previous to that of 1871, the new Auditor appointed to fill such vacancy shall hold office only during the period for which the person whom he succeeds would have held it. The present Delegates of Accounts shall hold office as Auditors for the periods for which they would have held office respectively as Delegates of Accounts.

2. The Auditors shall audit all accounts, whether belonging to the General Fund of the University or to special Funds, except in cases otherwise provided for.

3. The Auditors shall have full powers to require the production of all books, bills, vouchers, and documents relating to the accounts; and to disallow any charge for which in their judgment no sufficient authority shall have been produced. They may also, if they think fit, make a report on the form or substance of the accounts, or on any item therein; and such report shall be appended to the certified abstract of the accounts drawn up by the Curators of the Chest.

4. If any disagreement arises between the Auditors and the Curators of the Chest, or between the Auditors and the Administrators of any special Fund, regarding the sufficiency of authority for any payment, or on any other matter, the same shall be submitted to the Delegates of Appeals in Convocation, whose decision shall be final. And when such disagreement shall arise, the Auditors shall not certify the abstract until the matter in dispute has been decided.

5. The Auditors may employ, if they think fit, an Accountant to assist them in the discharge of their duties; and he shall receive such remuneration as they may deem reasonable.

6. The Auditors shall receive a yearly honorarium of ten guineas out of the University Chest.

7. Wherever in the statutes or elsewhere it is ordered that Accounts be audited by the Delegates of Accounts, it is to be understood that such Accounts are to be audited by the Auditors of Accounts.

Quæ quidem sigilla in propria Cancellarii vel Vice-Cancellarii custodia remanent.

4. 2. Post consummatam electionem, bibliothecarius spondeat coram Vice-Cancellario, verba præeunte Procuratore seniore: "Tu dabis fidem, te ea omnia fideliter executurum quæ ad officium bibliothecarii spectant." Resp. "Do."

Add. p. 814.

§. 3. De bibliothecarii libera recessione vel amotione.

1. Bibliothecarius si libere velit officio suo cedere, per mensem integrum ante cessionem suam Vice-Cancellario id denuntiet; qui more usitato idipsum palam omnibus notum faciat. Nullo tamen modo ad munus suum resignandum cogatur bibliothecarius, nisi ob indignum aliquod facinus perpetratum aut insignem defectum diutius in officio permanere ineptus judicetur. Quod si quicquid aut deliquerit aut male administraverit bibliothecarius, in eo Vice-Cancellarius ex consensu suffragioque curatorum admonendi potestatem habeat. Si autem amotionis pœnam mereatur, a munere suo moveatur per Vice-Cancellarium et delegatos appellationum in Congregatione aut majorem partem eorum.

2. Siquando bibliothecarius præ infirmiori valetudine aut senectute ingravescente assiduæ in bibliotheca moræ impar sit, Vice-Cancellarius, cum majoris partis omnium curatorum consensu, ei, post triginta annos in munere bibliothecarii vel in muneribus hypobibliothecarii et bibliothecarii positos (ita tamen ut per decem annos ad minimum fuerit bibliothecarius) beneficium annuum quingentarum librarum e pecuniis Bodleianis ad honorem tribuat; si autem per viginti annos bibliothecæ operam navaverit, ducentas quinquaginta libras. Vice-Cancellarius autem, sicut antea provisum est, alium bibliothecarium in ejus locum suffici curet.

§. 4. De officio et munere ejusdem.

1. Bibliothecarius totius interioris administrationis curam habeat, et omni ex parte bibliothecæ dignitati et utilitati semper invigilet.

2. Grande illud album, vel nominum quam vocant matriculam, penes ipsum servandi perpetuandique potestas sit; in qua describat illorum nomina quorum beneficentia aliquid aut librorum aut pecuniarum aut rerum denique pretiosarum in usum et emolumentum studentium bibliothecæ accreverit.

3. Præcipue vero libris undequaque conquirendis incumbat, iis præsertim, si qui in aliqua facultate majoris momenti desiderari videantur; eumque in finem catalogos librorum passim venalium, tam domi quam foras, diligenter inspiciat; curatorum aliorumve doctrina insignium virorum, et speciatim professorum in sua cujusque facultate, consilium adhibeat; nihil denique prætermittat, quo bibliotheca libris ad omne eruditionis scientiæque genus pertinentibus locupletetur.

4. In libris coemendis judicent curatores; qui tamen multum arbitrio bibliothecarii relinquere possunt.

5. Si autem ex relatione studentium liber aliquis vel plures ibidem desiderentur, curet bibliothecarius ut statim in libro aliquo in hunc usum destinato inscribantur tituli eorundem librorum, quo, re mature perpensa, si ex usu fore visum fuerit, emanantur hi libri et in usum studiosorum in bibliothecam inferantur.

6. Libros qui singulis annis accedant, signo bibliothecæ antea apposito, juxta facultates, quumprimum per spatium liceat, in classes suas digerat; singulis facultatibus catalogos assignet; in catalogum autem ampliorem nomina auctorum ordine alphabetico referat, titulum operis, qua forma voluminis excusum, quo loco annoque editum, subjiciat. Die autem rationum inspiciendarum catalogum omnium librorum qui anno proxime elapso bibliothecæ accesserint, adscripto singulis libris pretio suo, in manus curatorum tradat.

7. Quod si largitio pecuniaria ad libros coemendos illius fidei concedatur, donatori catalogum titulorum pretiumque singulorum librorum transmittendum curet.

8. Pecunias quibus ad libros coemendos cæterasve bibliothecæ impensas opus habeat bibliothecarius, ei, prout postulabit occasio, suppeditent Curatores, quorum Add. p. 835.
[1873.] sit bibliothecæ census accipere et custodire. Bibliothecarius autem rationes curatoribus reddere teneatur.

9. Quod si post visitationem, aut alias aliquo tempore, ipsi constiterit librum aliquem deesse, intra triiduum rem notam faciat Vice-Cancellario et Procuratoribus, ut omni modo de libro illo inquiratur.

terorum officiariorum et ministrorum.

1. Bibliothecario in partem laboris sui adjungantur hypobibliothecarii duo, linguarum tum eruditarum (quas Add. p. 835.
[1873.] vocant) tum vulgarium haud imperiti. Bibliothecarii arbitrium in omnibus bibliothecæ negotiis sequi teneantur. Ambo autem, quantum fieri potest, in bibliotheca Add. p. 814.
[1872.] constanter adsint, atque ex bibliothecarii mandato libris perquirendis ac digerendis et catalogis conficiendis dent operam, cæteraque omnia fideliter exsequantur quæ bibliothecæ usus et commoda postulare videantur.

2. Hypobibliothecarii nominentur a bibliothecario cum majoris partis omnium curatorum consensu; quæ quidem nominatio suffragiis venerabilis domus Convocationis permittatur, præmissa semper a Vice-Cancellario sex dierum publica monitione. Iidem ab officio removeantur, si quid tale meruerint, ex majoris partis omnium curatorum sententia.

3. Hypobibliothecarii, quumprimum nominati fuerint, eodem modo quo bibliothecarius, mutatis mutandis, fidelitatem spondeant.

4. Si autem hypobibliothecarius aliquis, ætate vel morbo ingravescente, officio suo cedere velit, ei, si per spatium triginta annorum bibliothecæ inservierit, et sit ad minimum quinquaginta annos natus, e Add. p. 835.

ducentæ libræ; alius verò hypobibliothecarius in ejus locum modo supradicto sufficiatur.

5. Sint præterea tres vel, si ita curatoribus videatur, etiam plures ministri, qui bibliothecario et hypobibliothecariis præsto adsint, eorum mandata exsequantur, libris perquirendis et reponendis dent operam, et aliis bibliothecæ usibus, prout res tulerit, ex superiorum præscripto diligenter inserviant.

6. Ministri nominentur a bibliothecario, cum majoris partis curatorum in Universitate præsentium approbatione; et eadem auctoritate ab officio removeantur.

7. Quod ad quotidianam attinet bibliothecæ curam, officarii omnes, quantum fieri potest, in ea constanter adsint. Nulla autem unquam de causa officarii omnes simul absint, sed vel bibliothecarius vel unus ex hypobibliothecariis semper adesse teneatur.

8. Sed ut aliqua saltem absentiae venia officariis hisce concedatur, liceat unicuique eorum extra academiam fines interdum versari, modo (præter dies festos atque solennes quibus bibliotheca claudenda sit) absentiae tempus in unoquoque anno septuaginta dies non exsuperet. Quod si merito in plures dies proroganda sit licentia quam præsentī hoc statuto definitum est, communibus in venerabili domo Convocationis suffragiis, dierum trium ad minimum publica monitione præmissa, arbitrium permissum est. Hoc autem sic intelligendum est, ne cuivis hypobibliothecariorum academia abesse liceat, dum bibliothecario foris esse contingat; nec bibliothecarius, cum præsens sit, amborum hypobibliothecariorum auxilio simul careat, nisi ex gravi aliqua et perurgenti causa, majori parti curatorum in Universitate præsentium approbanda; nec liceat bibliothecario neque hypobibliothecariis curæ animarum inservire.

Add. p. 835.
[1873.]

9. Ex ministris nemo absit, nisi speciali venia bibliothecarii prius impetrata; idque sub poena amotionis.

[v. Add. p.
654, 1862.]

10. Absentis bibliothecarii munere fungatur hypobibliothecarius senior.

11. Janitor longe a janua non discedat; quæ sit ingredientium conditio non segniter observet; bibliothecario et hypobibliothecariis obsequium præstet.

2. Pro stipendio annuo Janitoris ; modo ne minus quam quadraginta vel plus quam octoginta libras accipiat.
3. Pro stipendiis annuis ministrorum ; modo ne quis eorum minus quam viginti vel plus quam ducentas libras accipiat.
4. Pro stipendiis eorum, qui in catalogis librorum extra ordinem conficiendis aut alio quovis in usus bibliothecæ labore versentur. [v. Add. p.
737, 1867.]
5. Pro libris sive manuscriptis sive impressis prout occasio tulerit coemendis, compingendis, resarciendis.
6. Pro lapsis inclinatisque resarciendis, prout usus postulet, interioris structuræ, non solum antiquæ bibliothecæ, sed et scholarum hactenus annexarum vel in posterum per decretum venerabilis domus Convocationis annectendarum, atque etiam pergulæ Anglice vocatæ the picture gallery (quatenus illa in bibliothecæ usus cedat), et tecti tam exterioris quam interioris antiquæ bibliothecæ.
7. Pro pluteis et abacis reparandis vel de novo compingendis, et cæteris omnibus peragendis quæ ad justam librorum collocationem distributionemque requirantur.
8. Pro novis catalogis instituendis annuatim librorum sive manuscriptorum sive impressorum qui eo anno bibliothecæ accesserint.
9. Denique, quoniam fieri non potest ut omnibus speciatim provideatur, pro cæteris quotquot sint bibliothecæ sumptibus necessariis.

In hos autem usus assumantur,

1. Reditus et proventus prædiorum, tenementorum sive possessionum, quibus ex ipsius Bodleii munificentia fruitur bibliotheca.
2. Pecuniæ quæ ex munificentia Crewiana bibliothecario et bibliothecæ destinabantur.
3. Annuï proventus e pecuniis M^{ri} Godwyn, et viri munificentissimi Doctoris Mason; et e summa apud ærarium publicum perpetuo fœnore collocata, bibliothecæ autem Bodleianæ per decretum Convocationis A. D. 1845 annexa.

Add. p. 832.
[1873.]

4. Pecuniæ bibliothecæ Bodleianæ e cista academica juxta Statutum De Feodis pendendæ.

Prædia vero Bodleiana per cistæ academicæ curatores administrentur; qui, post reparationes factas omnesque alias justas expensas, quicquid ex eorum proventibus supererit bibliothecæ curatoribus in usus ejusdem erogandum tradant.

Add. p. 562.

§. 7. De custodia numismatum.

1. Numismatum custodiam habeat bibliothecarius; et quo melius tam pretiosæ suppellectilis integritati consulatur, nemo unquam, nisi ipso vel uno ex hypobibliothecariis præsentē, museolum ubi conservatur intrandi copiam habeat. Numismata uno eodemque tempore pluribus quam duobus nunquam ostendantur, nisi duo bibliothecæ officarii, vel unus ex officiariis et curatorum aliquis, per integrum tempus simul adsint.

2. Nemini hoc museolum visenti numisma aliquod suum cum numismatibus museoli conferre liceat.

§. 8. De tempore aperiendi et claudendi bibliothecam.

[v. Add. p.
842, 1874.]

Aperiatur bibliotheca mense Januario, Novembri, Decembri, ab hora nona matutina ad tertiam postmeridianam; Februario, Martio, Augusto, Septembri, Octobri, ad quartam; Aprili, Maio, Junio, Julio, ad quintam.

Exceptis,

Diebus omnibus Dominicis;

Vigiliis ante Nativitatem Domini, et deinceps usque ad festum Circumcisionis inclusive;

Festo Epiphaniae;

Die Passionis Domini, vigiliis Paschatis, ac sex feriis Pascha immediate sequentibus;

Die Ascensionis, et duobus feriis Pentecosten immediate sequentibus;

Die encæniorum;

Septem diebus a primo die Octobris numerandis;

Die visitationem bibliothecæ immediate precedente. [v. Add. p. 699, 1864.]

Diebus quibuscunque vel festivitatis vel jejunii, de quibus supra non aliter ordinatum fuerit, statim post conciones publice coram Universitate habitas bibliothecam accedentibus pateat aditus.

Si vero ex Convocationis edicto alia induciarum tempora inciderint, hoc per schedulam ostio bibliothecæ exteriori affigendam palam denuntietur.

Bibliothecarius vel unus ex hypobibliothecariis præsto semper aperiendis bibliothecæ foribus adsit.

Tintinnabuli sonitu exeundi tempus significari iidem curent; quo facto, nemini in bibliotheca morari liceat.

Nemo illuc, quocunque prætextu, immo nec ipse bibliothecarius, ignem, lucernam aut quodvis luminare accensum inferat vel ibi accendat; quod si fecerit, officio sive privilegio suo in perpetuum mulctetur.

§. 9. De modo studendi.

1. Volumina a bibliothecam studendi causa frequentantibus ne unquam a pluteis amoveantur, nisi permissu bibliothecarii; quæ vero in clathris et sub custodia bibliothecarii solius continentur, in manus cuique et numerato tradantur, ante discessum autem reddantur. Qui hanc legem violaverit, in duplum cujusque libri valorem, quem sic retinuerit aut celaverit, condemnatur; et, si destinata animi improbitate id factum comprobetur, e bibliotheca in perpetuum ejiciatur. Porro, manuscripta volumina (quæ promiscue singulis in bibliothecam admissis sine discrimine utenda exponi, non potest periculo carere) in archivis conclusa teneantur; nec cuiquam qui non sit actu membrum Universitatis, utenda permittantur, nisi qui in Artibus Magistrum aut saltem in Jure Civili Baccalaureum adduxerit, qui de libro indemni et illæso redhibendo spondeat.

Add. p. 563.

2. Libri in archivis contenti, quando ob antiquitatem, raritatem, pretium, speciem aut aliam denique præstantiorem ob notam magni æstimandi fuerint, parce tantum ostendantur, adhibita semper cura ne contrectatione nimia aut pervolutione corrumpantur.

3. Si quis a bibliothecario aut aliquo officario bibliothecæ interrogatus de nomine suo et collegio sive aula, non responderit statim juxta rei veritatem, ipso facto privilegio bibliothecæ intrandæ careat, donec per Congregationem regentium, gratia proposita et concessa, restituatur.

4. Nec superior nec inferior bibliothecarius cuivis tradat librum aliquem ad usum studiorum, nisi nomen ejus, una cum literis locum cujusque libri indicantibus, in libro chartaceo ad hoc munus peculiariter destinato inscribat; libro autem reddito deleatur nomen.

5. Nemo autem, sub pœna decem solidorum, inter legendum in aliquem librum incumbat; charta, sive libello aliquo chartaceo aut membranaceo proposito, super librum aliquem scribat: ne vel atramenti suffusione vel foliorum replicatione vel sordibus contractis contaminetur. Quos nisi persolverit, e bibliotheca protinus excludatur.

§. 10. *De iis, quos studendi causa ad bibliothecam
admittere licet:*

[v. Add. p. 841, 1874.] 1. Studendi privilegio omnes gradu aliquo insigniti gaudeant; alii vero, si literas commendatitias a probato aliquo viro secum attulerint. Cæteri, qui tantum bibliothecæ invisendæ causa frequentissimi adveniunt, ad anteriorem partem ejusdem, quæ 'Artium' nomine insignitur, solummodo admittantur; in cæteram corporis bibliothecæ partem nonnisi a graduato aliquo deductis aditus detur.

2. Priusquam autem aditus alicui in bibliothecam studendi causa patefiat, coram Vice-Cancellario, vel Procuratore, vel bibliothecario, huic quæ sequitur formulæ subscribat:

" Ego A. B. in bibliothecam Bodleianam admittendus ex animo polliceor me libros cæteramque suppellectilem sic esse tractaturum ut superesse quam diutissime possint; animum ad studia et silentium accommodaturum; et, quantum in me est, curaturum nequid bibliotheca detrimenti aut incommodi capiat."

3. Quod si posthac contigerit ut graduatus aliquis aut quilibet alius lancinandi aut subducendi librum aliquem, tractatum, vel paginam cujusvis in bibliotheca voluminis, liquido reus compertus fuerit, is protinus cum a bibliotheca tum ab academia, cum infamia atque dedecore, sine ulla spe regressus amoveatur.

§. 11. De libris extra bibliothecam ad tempus detinendis, aut etiam efferendis.

1. Quum plurimis ex usu fore autumetur, libros qui singulis annis bibliothecæ accedant uno conspectu percurrere, nonnulli vero variis officiorum suorum negotiis distringantur, quo tempore ad ipsam bibliothecam aditus patet; camera quædam haud procul a bibliotheca, quum primum id commode fieri possit, in usus graduatorum vel etiam exterorum qui licentiam studendi in bibliotheca adepti sint, seponatur. In qua camera libri omnes nuperrime editi reponantur, simul atque bibliothecæ accesserint, ibidemque per integrum annum asserventur, et tum demum in interiorem bibliothecæ partem asportentur.

2. In hanc cameram libros sive impressos sive manu scriptos e bibliotheca vespere in eorundem usus efferri liceat. Add. p. 564.

3. Quæ camera ab hora decima matutina usque ad horam decimam postmeridianam aperta maneat, nisi siquando justa de causa visum sit curatoribus eam prius claudere.

4. Huic cameræ adsint duo ministri, quorum officium erit libros recenter advectos in pluteis ordinate disponere; eosdem in manus cuique et numerato tradere; redditos in suis quosque locis reponere; quantum fieri potest, librorum titulos auctorumque nomina chartulis inscribere, quæ catalogo annuo conficiendo inservire possint; libris denique et inprimis codicibus manu scriptis invigilare (si qui e bibliotheca in eandem allati fuerint), ne quid detrimenti inter utendum accipiant.

5. Quicumque autem librum vel libros in hanc cameram efferri cupit, is semihora ad minimum ante tempus bibliothecæ claudendæ libros quibus opus habeat chartula, quam propria manu subscripserit, bibliothecario designet.

6. Quod si videatur opus esse altera etiam camera, quæ studiis severioribus proseguendis reservetur, liceat curatoribus hanc designare et apparare similibus conditionibus constituendam.

Add. p. 652.
[1861.]

7. Et quoniam viri honoratissimi, Joannis Radcliffe, D.M. fiduciarii magnam cameram Radclivianam academix in usum bibliothecæ Bodleianæ commodare dignati sint, liceat curatoribus libros sive manu scriptos sive typis impressos, imagines ære vel ligno impressas, alia denique si quæ visum fuerit de bibliothecæ supellectile eo translata reponere.

Porro, libros de scientiis in museo academico tractatis curatoribus liceat in musei academici bibliotheca asservandos collocare.

8. Quoties libri alicujus impressi exemplaria duo vel plura, sive ex eadem editione, sive denuo absque ulla immutatione excusi, in bibliotheca exstare constituerit, liceat curatoribus, rem proponente bibliothecario, si novem saltem e suo ipsorum numero consenserint, exemplari ex iis optimo asservato, cætera divendere vel libris aliis permutare. Proviso tamen, ne quis omnino liber alienetur, qui sive legato seu dono bibliothecæ accesserit.

Add. p. 677.
[1863.]

9. Liceat curatoribus tabulas quasdam tum ære aut ligno incisas, tum etiam manu delineatas, vel in camera Radcliviana, vel in ædibus Randolphianis, eo modo quo usui publico optime inservituræ videantur, collocare,—sigillo bibliothecæ Bodleianæ et donatorum nominibus munitas. Si quæ ejusmodi tabulæ in ædes Randolphianas transferantur, Curatoribus ædium accedat Bibliothecarius quamdiu saltem istæ tabulæ illis asserventur.

Add. p. 779.
[1869.]

Add. p. 835.
[1873.]

10. Liceat Curatoribus, sicut mos fuit, libros impressos et manuscriptos scientiæ causa viris doctis sive Academicis sive externis mutuari.

§. 12. De curatoribus bibliothecæ et de bibliotheca ab iis sæpius perlustranda. Add. p. 564.

1. Octo illis curatoribus jam inde a primordiis bibliothecæ Bodleianæ in perpetuum designatis (Vice-Cancellario scilicet et Procuratoribus eorumve deputatis, regiis S. Theologiæ, Juris Civilis et Medicinæ, Hebraici etiam Græcique sermonis professoribus) accedant quinque viri, variis doctrinis et literis imbuti, jure intrandi domum Congregationis Universitatis Oxoniensis gaudentes, et intra academiam residentes. A domo Congregationis Universitatis Oxoniensis in decennium, si tamdiu resederint, eligantur; iidem, exacto decennio, denuo eligantur, si ita venerabili domui visum fuerit.

2. Curatoribus, iisque solis, jus concedatur sine aliquo ex bibliothecæ officiariis comitante in istas partes bibliothecæ intrandi quæ claustris obserantur; excepto semper museolo ubi custodiuntur numismata, de quo supra speciatim statutum est. Quæ potestas ideo conceditur, ut in statum et conditionem bibliothecæ assidue inquirant, et explorent utrum omnia recte conserventur et justo ordine disponantur. Et si quid invenerint in quo contra statuta et regulas legitime sancitas peccatum fuerit, vel quod in melius mutari poterit, illico Vice-Cancellarium adeant; qui eorum rogatu curatores cæteros submoneat et convocet.

3. Neque solum quomodo muneris sui rationem bibliothecarius obiverit, excutiant; sed incertis etiam in rebus ad se relatis, quid sit faciendum demonstrent; si imperfecte conditum statutum; si recenti malo novum sit quærendum remedium; similiterque in cæteris, ubi opem efflagitat necessitas. Atque super hujusmodi incommodis, (postquam inter se conjunctis opinionibus convenerint) Convocationis domus certior facta expeditam afferat emendationem. Proviso tamen, quod, in omni curatorum ad venerabilem domum Convocationis relatione, ratio semper habeatur stat. tit. VII. (X.) sect. ii. §. 2. et tit. IX. (XIII.) et legis a parlamento latæ 17^o et 18^o Victoriæ, cap. 81.

4. Bis in unoquoque termino, aut sæpius, si res tulerit, die et hora a Vice-Cancellario constituenda, curatores in bibliotheca aut (si justa de causa ita expedire videbitur) in alio loco idoneo convenient de libris emendis et disponendis consulturi. Scripto autem consignent, si quos libros pretio comparari placuerit.

Add. p. 835.

[1873.]

5. Curatorum muneris erit, sicut antea dictum est, bibliothecæ reditus et pecunias undecunque provenientes accipere et in usus bibliothecæ erogare. Qui tamen rationes acceptorum et expensorum auditoribus computorum quotannis submittant.

[v. Add. p.

6. Singulis annis octavo die Novembris (nisi Dominica fuerit, cujus vices dies Saturni proxime antecedens compensabit,) in bibliothecæ statum ac conditionem singulatim inquirant: in quem finem pridie ejus diei curatores singulos Vice-Cancellarius per bedellum submoneat, eo ut se primo mane sequente recipiant.

7. Ibi vero clausis foribus (ne quisquam incommode illos interpellat) et secluso bibliothecario donec accitus fuerit, examinent ecquid diligentiam in omnibus officii sui partibus adhibuerit. Libros porro ipsi oculis perlustrent, ne forte aliqui anno proxime elapso incuria aut mala fraude amissi sint vel perditi.

8. Curatoribus etiam liceat alterum diem perlustrandæ bibliothecæ, præcipue archivis, assignare.

9. Quod si tandem aliquando bibliothecam ita amplificari contigerit, ut libros universos, sicut a bibliothecæ primordiis factum est, juxta facultates in classes suas digerere liceat, consilium ineant bibliothecæ curatores ut intra singulas etiam facultates, si ita commode fieri possit, libri distincte et ordinate disponantur: exceptis si quæ librorum collectiones ea lege bibliothecæ accreverint, ut seorsim in uno quodam loco servarentur; in quibus tamen ipsis, quantum per donatorum voluntatem licet, libros ordine quodam et serie disponant.

526, 1855.]

Add. p. 814.

7. The Vice-Chancellor shall have power before the end of Hilary Term in any year, with the consent of the Hebdomadal Council, to appoint a place other than the Theatre for holding the Encænia for that year.

8. The estates of the Theatre shall be managed by the Curators of the University Chest. The Curators of the Chest shall from time to time pay over to the Curators of the Theatre such sums as the Curators of the Theatre shall require for the purposes of this statute. The Curators of the Theatre shall submit their accounts annually to the Auditors of Accounts.

Accipiat custos præterea salarium octoginta librarum; ea tamen conditione, ut huic summæ nihil ultra stipendii accedat, si id ita contingat ut idem musei Ashmoleani et academici sit custos.

[1876.]

2. Laboratorii Clarendoniani cura committatur Professori Philosophiæ Experimentalis.

§. 2. De museo Ashmoleano.

Statutum regia auctoritate sancitum, A.D. 1870.

1. Quinque sint Musei Ashmoleani visitatores, scilicet, Vice-Cancellarius, Historiarum Professor Camdenianus, Historiæ Modernæ Professor Regius, et alii duo ex iis qui jus intrandi domum Convocationis habent a Congregatione Universitatis Oxoniensis in quinquennium eligendi. Sectio VI.—De institutione Tayloriana.

Add. p. 774.
[1869.]

Regulations of the Taylor Institution.

1. There shall be nine Curators of the Taylor Institution, namely:—

The Vice-Chancellor;

The Regius Professor of Modern History;

The Professor of Comparative Philology;

Four Members of Convocation, nominated by the Vice-Chancellor and Proctors, subject to the approval of Convocation, holding office for five years, and re-eligible.

Two Members of Convocation elected for ten years by the Curators from among the non-official Members of their own body. Any such Curator, however, whose term of ten years shall have expired, shall be capable of being re-elected to the place which he has so vacated.

If any non-official Curator shall cease to reside within the University, his Curatorship shall be declared vacant by the Vice-Chancellor.

2. The Curators shall hold three stated meetings in every year, and shall meet at other times when summoned by the Vice-Chancellor. The stated meetings shall be held in the second week of February, the second week of May, and the second week of November, on such days as the Vice-Chancellor shall appoint. Four Curators shall be a quorum. When the votes are equal, the Vice-Chancellor shall have a casting vote.

3. The Teachers, the Librarian, and every officer and servant of the Institution shall be appointed, and removable, by the Curators. Every appointment of a Teacher shall be subject to the approval of Convocation.

4. For the teaching of Modern Languages within the Institution there shall be so many Teachers, and of such languages, as the Curators shall from time to time determine. Each Teacher shall be appointed for not more than five years, but shall be re-eligible. Every Teacher shall reside within the University during every academical term, unless he shall have obtained from the Curators leave of absence for a specified period. It shall be the duty of every Teacher to give instruction within the Institution to Members of the University during seven weeks at least in every Term (Easter and Act Terms being counted as one), and six hours at least in each week; to conform to such regulations as the Curators may make respecting the hours and mode of teaching, the arrangement of classes, the books to be used, and other matters of a like nature; to make a terminal Report to the Curators in such form as they may direct, and to furnish them from time to time with such information respecting his work within the Institution as they may require; and to assist in Examinations for Scholarships, if and in such manner as he may be required so to do by the Curators.

Add. p. 775.

5. No Teacher may receive Members of the University as private pupils without having previously obtained permission to do so from the Curators, and no Teacher shall receive any private pupils within the Institution.

6. The stipend of each Teacher shall be at the rate of £150 per annum. The Curators may, if they shall think fit, require from all persons attending the Teachers' Lectures payment of fees, not to exceed £1 for each term. All fees so received shall be paid over to the Teachers in respect of whose Lectures they are received. The Curators may also in their discretion make additional payments to Teachers in augmentation of their stipends, if and on such a scale as the Curators may think just and reasonable, having regard to the number of Lectures delivered and the state of the funds of the Institution.

7. The Curators may make arrangements for the delivery from time to time within the Institution of Lectures on the literature or language of any of the Nations of Modern Europe, and may pay, out of the annual income of the Institution, to each person who shall deliver such Lectures, such a sum of money by way of honorarium as they shall think fit.

8. There shall be awarded annually, provided there be two Candidates of sufficient merit, a Scholarship and an Exhibition of the values of £50 and £25 respectively, tenable for one year, and open to all Members of the University who shall not have exceeded the twenty-third term from their Matriculation.

9. The general subject-matter of the Examination for the Scholarship and Exhibition shall be one or more of the languages taught within the Institution, Comparative Philology as applied to the same, and the literature of such selected language or languages. The Curators shall fix from time to time the particular subjects of each Examination, of which they shall issue notice one year at least previous to such Examination.

10. The Professor of Comparative Philology shall be an Examiner ex officio, and the Curators may appoint one or more additional Examiner or Examiners, to each of whom they may pay a sum not exceeding £10.

11. Every candidate for a Scholarship shall send to the Curators his name, a certificate of his academical standing, and the consent in writing of the head or vicegerent of his college or hall, three clear days at least before the day appointed by the Curators for the commencement of the Examination.

12. A Candidate who has obtained an Exhibition may in a subsequent year be elected to the Scholarship; but no Candidate who has been elected to a Scholarship shall be afterwards admitted to competition.

13. The Curators may, if they shall deem it expedient and the funds at their disposal shall in their judgment be sufficient, establish, or offer for competition from time to time, an additional Scholarship or Exhibition, of such value, and to be awarded on an Examination in such subjects connected with Modern Languages and Literature, as they may determine.

14. The Librarian shall reside within the University during the whole of every year, except when the Library is closed; but the Curators may grant to him leave of absence for a specified time. He shall discharge such duties in respect of the Library, and generally in reference to the Institution, as may be assigned to him by the Curators. Add. p. 776.

15. The Curators may fix from time to time the stipend of the Librarian, provided it do not exceed £150 per annum. They may, if they shall think fit, appoint an Assistant in the Library at a reasonable stipend, either in addition to or in lieu of the Librarian, and may in the latter case provide for the performance of the Librarian's duties in such manner as they may deem expedient.

16. The Library shall be open, on such days and at such hours as the Curators shall appoint, to Members of the University, to the Teachers, and to such other persons as shall have obtained from the Curators permission in writing to read therein; such permission to be granted only on a recommendation in writing signed by two members of Congregation, not being Curators, personally acquainted with the applicant. Members of the University and Teachers may, if the Curators shall think fit, be allowed to borrow books from the Library; and the Curators may in their discretion extend this privilege, by permission in writing (to be granted only on a like recommendation), to persons who, though not belonging to either of the above classes, shall be residing in the University for the purpose of study or the prosecution of any work or employment connected with literature or science. The Curators may make and enforce such regulations as they may deem expedient to secure the proper use of the Library by persons admitted thereto, and to prevent abuse of the privilege of borrowing books by persons enjoying the same.

17. The Curators may keep, for the service of the Institution, a Porter or any other servant or servants who may be required, at reasonable wages; and may at their discretion permit, or require, such Porter or servant, or the Librarian or Assistant in the Library, to occupy rooms and reside within the walls of the Institution.

18. The Curators shall in every year set apart, out of the income of the Institution, such a sum at least as added to the annual premium paid for Insurance against Fire would amount to £100. The sums so set apart shall form a separate fund and the income shall be accumulated, and the fund and its accumulations shall be at the disposal of the Curators for extraordinary repairs and unforeseen expenses. The residue of the income, after payment of stipends, Scholarships and Exhibitions, ordinary repairs, and all other necessary expenses and outgoings, shall be expended in maintaining and extending the Library by the purchase of books and periodicals.

Add. p. 830.
[1873.]

Sectio VII.—De parco Academico.

1. There shall be five Curators of the University Park, of whom the Vice-Chancellor, or some Member of Convocation appointed by the Vice-Chancellor to act in his stead, shall always be one. The other four shall be Members of Convocation, two elected by the Congregation of the University, and two by the Hebdomadal Council, each holding office for six years, and re-eligible. The first elections shall take place as soon as conveniently may be after the passing of this Statute; and of the Curators then elected the junior in each pair shall vacate the office after the expiration of three years. Any vacancy occurring before the end of the proper period shall be supplied only to the end of such period.

2. The Curators shall have charge of the Park, of the Fishery in the Cherwell, of the Bathing Place and land adjoining, and of all Walks repaired by the University. For these purposes they shall be entrusted yearly with the sum of four hundred pounds from the University Chest and with the rents and profits of the premises. They shall submit their accounts annually to the Auditors of Accounts.

Secio VIII.—Of the University Observatory.

Add. p. 845.
[1875.]

1. The Savilian Professor of Astronomy shall have charge of the University Observatory, subject to the superintendence of the Board of Visitors hereinafter constituted.

2. There shall be ten Visitors of the Observatory, of whom the Vice-Chancellor, the Proctors, the Astronomer Royal, the Director of the University Observatory at Cambridge, and the Radcliffe Observer shall always be six. The other four shall be elected by the Congregation of the University, and shall be members of Convocation or persons who have received an honorary degree in one of the higher Faculties, each holding office for ten years, and re-eligible. The first election shall take place as soon as conveniently may be after the passing of this Statute, and of the Visitors then elected the junior two shall vacate office after five years. Any vacancy occurring before the end of the proper period shall be supplied only to the end of such period.

3. The Visitors shall meet once at least in every Term; they shall inspect the Observatory and the Instruments from time to time as they judge expedient; and at their meeting in the Trinity Term the Professor shall lay before them a report of the proceedings in the Observatory during the preceding year.

4. The accounts of the Observatory shall be annually submitted to the Auditors of Accounts.

Section IX.—Of the Botanic Garden.

Inasmuch as it was ordered by a Decree of the Court of Chancery, made on the 21st day of July 1871, that the Perpetual Committee established by the same Court on the 9th day of July 1733 to supervise and regulate all things relating to the Botanic Garden should be replaced by three resident Members of Convocation to be nominated by the Vice-Chancellor and Proctors subject to the approbation of Convocation, to hold office for ten years, and to be styled Curators of the Botanic Garden; that the expenditure of the sum of £150, which the University is bound to pay annually for the maintaining and keeping up of the Botanic Garden, Greenhouse, and Library, should be entrusted to such Curators; and that the Garden should be managed by them:

And since no special provision has hitherto been made by Statute concerning the outlay of the annual income arising from the benefaction bequeathed by the Right Honourable Henry Earl of Danby for the maintenance of the Garden, or concerning the outlay of the sum of £82 paid annually out of the University Chest for the same purpose, which sum of £82 is part of the sum of £182 appointed by the Statute De salariis quibusdam professoribus pendendis (Tit. IV, Sect. II, § 2) to be paid annually to the Professor of Botany and has always heretofore been applied to the uses of the Garden:

Now it is hereby provided that the expenditure of all moneys appropriated to the uses of the Botanic Garden shall be committed to the care of the Curators of the Garden.

§. 7. Cum reus comparuerit in judicio, quid agendum.

Die juridico, reo comparente, actor sive is qui eum in jus vocavit (nisi id antea apud registrarium fecerit) statim in curia stipuletur; et de lite proseguenda, expensisque solvendis casu quo in causa succubuerit, fide-jussorem interponat: reus item de re judicata et expensis solvendis stipuletur et fide-jubeat; uterque etiam procuratorem sibi constituat. In quibus si actor defecerit, reus cum expensis dimittatur: si reus, donec præstiterit, incarceretur. Fide-jussoribus vero interpositis et procuratoribus constitutis, partes juramentum utrinque suscipiant quod super libellis exceptionibus aliisque materiis hinc inde proponendis, cum examinati fuerint, omnem quam sciverint vel crediderint veritatem, quatenus ad id de jure astringuntur, proferent.

§. 8. De modo procedendi in causis levioribus: et in causis quæ pecunia æstimandæ non sunt.

In causis levioribus (quales habendæ sunt quæ summam viginti solidorum non excedunt; aut in quibus de injuriis agitur, quæ satisfactione pecuniaria æstimandæ non sunt) utpote cum nec corpus nec existimatio læditur, et vel recognitio injuriæ vel reclamatio verborum sufficiat, licebit Vice-Cancellario vel ejus deputato sine aliqua solennitate aut longiore dilatione procedere: et intra tres dies juridicos, vel tres alios communes, prout sibi visum fuerit, negotium terminare. In quorum primo, pars actrix per se vel per procuratorem suum actionem vel querelam viva voce vel in scriptis breviter proponet; et pars rea per se vel cum procuratoris consilio respondebit; et, siquam defensionis materiam habeat, statim proferet. In secundo, actor testes producet. In tertio, reus defensionis probationes faciet; et iudex negotio finem imponens sententiam feret, quæ per registrarium in scripta redigetur.

§. 9. De modo procedendi in causis gravioribus.

Statutum est quod in causis pecuniariis quæ viginti solidorum summam excedunt, et in quibus agitur de injuriis ex quibus damnum aliquod infertur aut inferri poterit satisfactione pecuniaria resarciendum, modo solenniori, summario tamen, procedatur: ita ut primo die juridico, quo reus comparet, actor libellum edere; in proximo, reus libello respondere, et materiam exceptivam sive defensivam proponere teneatur; in tertio, actor materiæ exceptivæ sive defensivæ responsionem interponat. Deinde tres dies juridici sequentes statuuntur, in quibus instrumenta exhibeantur, testes producantur et examinentur, et cujusque generis probationes, quæ antea factæ non sunt, in medium adducantur; quibus elapsis, publicentur testes, et causa concludatur; qua conclusa, non ultra biduum terminus pro informatione judicis assignetur.

In causis criminalibus, et iis quæ ad reformationem morum spectant, non solum publice in curia, sed etiam in privato hospitio aut alibi extra curiam Cancellarius sive Vice-Cancellarius, vel ad sectam partis vel ex officio, procedere poterit: ita quod, si quis de delicto aliquo graviori conveniatur, (cui per statuta mulcta Universitati applicanda irrogatur; vel incarcerationis, suspensionis, vel alterius majoris coercionis pœna infligitur) registrarius ejusve deputatus adhibeatur, qui crimen objectum, probationes et sententiam in acta redigat.

1. Si quis de perturbata pace vel gravi aliquo crimine Vice-Cancellario delatus vel suspectus, vel ab ipso deprehensus fuerit; statutum est quod carceri custodiæ causa committatur. Et, si studiosus cujuscunque gradus, vel persona privilegiata, aut etiam oppidanus (dummodo in causa cognitionem Cancellarii spectante altera pars extiterit) jussus a Vice-Cancellario vel, ejusdem mandato, a bedello requisitus fuerit in carcerem se conferre, statim obtemperare teneatur; vel si recusaverit, ab Universitate penitus expellatur. Quod si privilegiatus fuerit vel oppidanus, privilegio, aut commercio cum privilegiatis, respective, ipsi interdicatur.

2. Proviso tamen quod si fide-jussores idoneos de comparendo in judicio et usque ad sententiam permanendo interposuerit, a carcere liberetur. Quod si fide-jussores dare non poterit, Vice-Cancellarius, vel is qui detulit, intra duos dies crimen in judicium deducat; et, quamprimum fieri potest, examinato negotio, de eodem secundum juris exigentiam statuatur.

§. 12. De reis majorum criminum convictis.

Si quis perturbatæ pacis vel gravis alicujus criminis reus (etiamsi intra privatum collegium quodcunque vel aulam perpetrati; si privata statuta hujusmodi crimini pœnam nullam ponant, aut parti læsæ intra privatos parietes satisfieri non possit) per probationes legitimas et sufficientes convictus fuerit, aut deprehensus in ipso facto (actu desuper a registrario confecto), in pœnis juxta juris et statutorum exigentiam condemnatur; et quoad satisfecerit, vel de satisfaciendo et pace conservanda et honeste se gerendo cautionem sufficientem (scilicet fide-jussoriam) interposuerit, incarcerationetur: ejusque nomen, crimen, condemnatio et cautio, et quota vice sic deliquerit, in registro Vice-Cancellarii ad hoc specialiter designato registretur. Et, si quis quarto in perturbatione pacis vel in eodem gravioris alicujus criminis genere deliquisse convictus fuerit, in perpetuum ab Universitate expellatur.

1. Si quis de crimine aliquo accusatus vel suspectus fugam fecerit; vel si quis in plateis vel domibus, viso Vice-Cancellario vel Procuratoribus, ut culpæ conscius in fugam se conjecerit; vel post citationis schedulam ostio cameræ vel domus in qua morari consuevit

Et si clericus fuerit, qui ad locum aliquem extra Universitatem se receperit (nisi intra mensem a tempore quo requisitus fuerit, se submiserit), illius nomen, simul cum delicto de quo notatus vel convictus fuerit, diœcesano loci in quo moratur, sub sigillo communi Universitatis transmittatur, ut contra ipsum per diœcesanum procedatur.

2. Quod si quis, mandato Vice-Cancellarii per bedellorum aliquem arrestandus, bedello warrantum Vice-Cancellarii monstranti vel manus injicienti protinus sese haud dediderit, in carcerem vel custodiam alicubi compingendum; quin potius fuga se subducere, aut vi e manibus bedelli eluctari paraverit; ipso facto, si persona privilegiata fuerit, privilegiis Universitatis exuatur; sin scholaris fuerit, banniatur, et si graduatus fuerit, gradu privetur.

Quoniam oppidani, academicis plerumque infesti et adversi, privilegia Universitatis oppugnandi nullam non occasionem captant; quin et privilegiati nonnunquam, publicam utilitatem privato commodo posthabentes, privilegiis Universitatis adversantur; statutum est quod ad compescendam hujusmodi insolentiam sive vecordiam (siqui super hoc convicti fuerint) privilegiatis, privilegiis Universitatis, oppidanis vero, commercio cum privilegiatis interdicatur.

§. 15. De perturbatoribus pacis, sive iis quorum appellationes recipiendæ non sunt.

1. Cum de jure communi appellationis beneficium quibusdam denegandum sit, nonnunquam præ odio delictorum quæ commissa sunt, nonnunquam ad compescendam eorum insolentiam, qui in mediis tumultibus (quando silent leges, ac imperio utendum est ubi lege agi non potest) juris obtentu se contra legum ac magistratum auctoritatem muniunt; statutum est quod perturbatæ pacis, sive quorundam criminum inferius enumeratorum reis (hoc est, vel probabiliter suspectis, vel convictis) omni prorsus appellandi potestate interdictum sit. Cujusmodi sunt,

2. Primo, qui ad aliorum existimationem minuendam libellos famosos condiderunt, seu in vulgus sparserunt, aut etiam recitando vel transcribendo publicarunt; quive ab aliis recitados aut lectos audiverint, nec protinus ad Vice-Cancellarium recitantis aut legentis nomen detulerint; vel qui, sive in exercitiis publicis, sive in scena publice, ad alicujus contumeliam et infamiam quicquam protulerunt; vel qui de damno alicui inferendo minati sunt. 3. Secundo, qui aliis vim intulerunt, aut inferentibus opem præbuerunt; scilicet impellendo percutiendo vulnerando aut simile aliquid committendo.

4. Tertio, qui arma, secus quam statutis Universitatis permissum est, portaverunt; et qui de nocte vagati sunt; et qui ebrietatis perjurii fornicationis vel adulterii et his similia crimina perpetrarunt, vel horum participes fuerunt.

5. Quarto, qui coram domino Cancellario ejusve commissario aut ipsius deputato legitime moniti sive citati, comparere recusarunt; vel comparentes, cum multitudine accesserunt; vel in eundem verba opprobriosa conjecerunt; vel carcerem adire jussi, non obtemperarunt, aut inde injussi se proripuerunt; vel qui de se aut aliis justitiam fieri non permiserunt; vel post tres conformes sententias non acquieverunt.

6. Quinto, qui privatim conventicula sive conspirationes et confœderationes, vel publice turbas hominum congregaverunt, vel eisdem ultro interfuerunt: quive pro concionibus quicquam ad seditionem aut factionem in Universitate vel collegio aliquo aulave alendam aut excitandam, vel, quod doctrinæ aut disciplinæ ecclesiæ Anglicanæ deroget aut dissentiat, disseminaverunt;

3. Et, si quempiam eorum qui sic nominati fuerint, deficere, vel diutinae absentiae causam habere, vel ex justa etiam causa recusare, contigerit, Procuratores, vel eorum alter, cum domino Vice-Cancellario, alium ejusdem facultatis et gradus, si talis in Universitate præsens fuerit, alias quemlibet alium (prout ipsis videbitur) in ejusdem locum substituant. Ita tamen quod liceat tribus quibuscunque ex iisdem utriusque domus delegatis, aliis rogatis et absentibus, quoad citationes et actus alios usque ad sententiam procedere.

4. Et quicquid in quacunque causa major pars omnium delegatorum utriusvis domus respective statuerit vel decreverit, ratum sit, et effectum debitum sortiatur. 2. Modo tamen, priusquam inhibuerint, appellans coram eis aut eorum altero iuraverit, quod, non causa frivolæ dilationis procurandæ, sed ex justa causa (quam se probaturum credit) appellaverit; et cautionem sufficientem (id est, vicesimam partem condemnationis principalis in priori instantia, in appellatione a sententia definitiva; in appellatione vero a sententia interlocutoria, summam quinque solidorum) deposuerit. Corp. Stat. P. 204. [1636.]

Quod si res aliqua in iudicium deducta fuerit, cujus æstimatio non fit, aut certo fieri non poterit; istiusmodi rei æstimatio, ejusque cautio, ad arbitrium Procuratorum vel alterutrius eorum (puta recipientis) referatur. Quæ quidem cautio, ab altero Procuratorum prius petita, penes eundem intra triduum, proxime a tempore quo exstitit appellatum, deponatur; alias appellatio pro deserta habeatur.

4. Juramentum autem et cautionem prædictam Procuratores petere ac recipere, receptamque cautionem, casu quo appellans obtineat, eidem restituere, et, casu quo succumbat, in computo generali officii sui Procuratorii, coram dicti computi auditoribus, una cum cæteris ad usum et utilitatem Universitatis receptis, huiusmodi cautionis rationem reddere teneantur. appellationem ad eosdem interpositam significatum fuerit, delegatorum munus in se suscipiant; et quolibet die Mercurii, inter horas primam et secundam (aut sæpius, si visum fuerit) in loco designando conveniant; et sine intermissione usque ad sententiam ferendam et executioni demandandam constanter procedant. Quodque appellationis instrumento, loco libelli, ab appellante ejusve procuratore iis porrecto et oblato, diem competentem statuunt, intra quem appellans, ipsam actorum et processus in curia, a qua appellatur, copiam transmittendam, vel saltem originalia per registrarium adducenda, et partem adversam citandam, procurare possit. Quo die, si, cessante impedimento legitimo, pars appellans deficiat, causam judici, a quo, remittant; sin pars appellata, contumaciæ censuris, donec comparuerit, coerceatur. Utraque vero comparente, si ex eisdem actis procedere voluerint, uno vel altero die ea quæ consistunt in facto cognoscent: et, si res ita postulet, unum vel alterum diem pro informationibus in jure concedent. Et quumprimum, habita inter se matura deliberatione, inter omnes vel majorem eorum partem convenerit, sententiam ferant. Si vero pars alterutra, vel utraque, de novo aliquid allegare vel probare petierit, ita demum admittent, si pars petens prius fidem fecerit, se verum credere quod allegat et probare intendit. Deinde terminos expediendo negotio, quam fieri potest, brevissimos statuunt. Quibus elapsis, quumprimum fieri poterit, eodem modo de facto et de jure cognoscent et sententiam ferent.

7. If at the time of holding an election the Electors shall not think any of the Candidates worthy of the Scholarship, they shall have power to postpone the election for any period not exceeding two years.

8. In the event of an election being postponed as aforesaid, the Electors shall have power, if they think fit, to grant the annual stipend of £50, or any less sum, under the name of an Exhibition, to any person who shall be certified to them as desirous of pursuing the study of Chinese. They shall have power to make such grant with or without examination, and with or without giving public notice of their intention to do so. Every Exhibition so created shall be tenable during the period for which the election to the Scholarship shall have been postponed, and under the same conditions of residence and study as are applicable to the Scholarship.

9. The sums which shall accrue during any vacancy of the Scholarship, or otherwise, shall be invested in augmentation of the fund.

10. The Electors shall have power to defray out of the accumulated fund any expenses connected with the Scholarship.

I. CLINICAL PROFESSOR.

See Statt.
tit. IV.
sect. I. §. 11.

- (a.) Abstract, with extracts, of a portion of the will of the right honourable George Henry, earl of Lichfield, Chancellor of the University, dated April 21, 1769, and proved October 15, 1772.

THE testator directed that certain personal property should be sold after the decease of his wife, and bequeathed "the clear money arising from such sale to "the then Chancellor of the University of Oxford, "the then bishop of Oxford, and the then president "of St. John's college in Oxford," and their successors respectively, in trust "for the foundation of a professorship in the said University for the reading "of clinical lectures in physic in the hospital or "infirmary in the said city of Oxford to the students "in physic in the said University, such professor to "be chosen in by the members of Convocation. Provided nevertheless that no person shall be eligible "thereto who shall not have taken a Doctor's degree "in physic five years at the least before such his "election. And I do hereby will and direct, that "my said trustees for the time being shall from "time to time place out and invest the said trust "moneys in government or parliamentary securities "at interest; and that they shall and may from time "to time change, vary, and alter such securities, as "to them in their discretion shall seem meet; and “ that they shall and do from time to time pay the “ interest and proceed thereof to the professor for “ the time being, to be chosen as aforesaid. . . .

“ Nevertheless my will is, that such foundation shall “ be subject to such rules, orders, and directions
“ as shall be at any time hereafter by me declared
“ and directed by any codicil to this my will, or “ other writing by me signed for that purpose ;
“ and for want of such direction to be subject to such “ rules, orders, and directions as shall at any time
“ be made by my said trustees in that behalf.”

(b.) Orders and directions made by the trustees,
May 20, 1780.

1. That the professor who shall at any time be elected according to the will of the said earl of Lichfield shall personally reside in the University of Oxford.

2. That he shall annually during the months of November, December, January, February, and March, in the presence of the auditors hereafter to be described, once in every day visit, and, where it shall seem necessary, prescribe for, such patients in the Radcliffe infirmary as shall come under his care: the prescriptions, together with a report of the symptoms and the effects of remedies, to be entered in a book, which shall at all times lie open for the inspection and use of the pupils.

3. That he shall on two days in every week during the months above mentioned, at such an hour as he, with the consent of the Vice-Chancellor for the time being, shall appoint, read a lecture on the nature and circumstances of the particular cases which shall have been before him, the several methods of treatment, and such medical topics as they shall lead to.

4. That the professor shall give public notice of such course of lectures one month at least before he intends to enter upon it.

5. That none but students in physic in the University of Oxford be considered as the proper auditors of the lectures; and that three of them be deemed an audience.

6. That nevertheless the professor may, with the consent of the Vice-Chancellor for the time being, admit to his lectures any person or persons who can produce sufficient testimonials of his or their regular and sober deportment during the two years last past.

7. That the professor shall receive such gratuity from his hearers as the trustees shall from time to time think reasonable. The sum to be immediately received from the students in physic to be for the first course which they shall attend three guineas, for the second course two guineas. Such students as shall have attended two courses to be afterwards admitted gratis. Other auditors to pay three guineas for every course which they shall attend.

8. That, if the professor shall neglect, after due notice given, to enter upon such course of lectures, he shall, upon the information of three students in physic who shall not have gone through more than three courses, (the information to be made to the Vice-Chancellor on or before the last day of Michaelmas term, and by him notified to the trustees,) that they were ready and desirous to attend such lectures, forfeit one whole year's stipend, to be applied to the use of the Radcliffe infirmary.

9. That the professor shall, for every lecture which he shall omit, forfeit five pounds, to be applied to the use mentioned in the last article.

10. That, in the case of illness or necessary absence from the University for a short time, the professor shall be allowed to appoint a sufficient deputy, to be approved of by the Vice-Chancellor and Proctors. But, if it shall happen that he shall be disabled by age or continued infirmity, he shall then appoint a deputy, who shall be approved of by Convocation, and shall be subject to the same rules as he himself would have been subject to, if capable of performing his duty.

11. That, if it shall happen that the professor shall incur the penalty of expulsion from the University, or shall so far desert the profession of physic as openly to assume any other, or, after having been once admonished by the Vice-Chancellor and Proctors for neglect of duty, shall again offend in like manner, it shall then be in the power of the Vice-Chancellor, with the consent of Convocation, to remove him from his office, and, after due notice given, to proceed to the election of a new professor.

12. That the power given to the trustees named by lord Lichfield of making rules, orders, and directions for this foundation be, and is hereby, reserved in its full extent and meaning.

N. B. By "students in physic" in the above statutes such persons are intended as shall have completed two years in the University, and shall have signified their intentions of studying physic by entering their names in a book to be kept by the Vice-Chancellor for that purpose.

2. LINACRE PROFESSOR OF PHYSIOLOGY.

See Stat.
tit. IV.
sect. I. §. 12.

Extracts from an ordinance made in relation to Merton college by the Oxford University commissioners, April 3, 1857, in pursuance of the act 17 and 18 Vict. c. 81, and afterwards approved by her Majesty in council.

WHEREAS, by an ordinance framed by us, and dated the nineteenth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, it is (amongst other things) provided that the emoluments of certain fellowships within Merton college shall, to an amount not exceeding eight hundred pounds per annum, be applied to the maintenance within the said University of a professorship of physiology, to be established as therein mentioned: Now we ordain that there shall be established within the University a professorship of physiology, to be called the "Linacre professorship of physiology," to the maintenance of which the said emoluments shall always be applied.

The election of the said professor shall always be vested in the visitor and warden of Merton college, the president of the college or commonalty of the faculty of physic in London commonly called the royal college of physicians, the president of the royal college of surgeons of England, and the president of the royal society for the time being, or the major part of them. * * * * The University may by statute define, and from time to time regulate the functions and duties of the professor, and may provide for the performance of them by deputy in case of his unavoidable absence or incapacity, and for the suitable payment of any such deputy out of the professor's emoluments, and may determine whether the professor shall be permitted to receive any and what fees for attendance on his instructions, provided that no such fees shall be payable by any member of Merton college. The professor shall reside in the University for six months at least, between the tenth day of October in every year and the first day of the next ensuing July, and in default thereof shall vacate his professorship, unless leave of absence shall have been granted to him on account of sickness, or for any other very urgent cause, by or by authority of the University. The professor shall not during his tenure of the professorship practise either medicine or surgery. It shall be lawful for the Vice-Chancellor and the delegates of appeals in Congregation, or the greater part of them, to deprive of his professorship any professor who in their judgment shall have been proved to be guilty of culpable negligence or misconduct in his office, grave immorality, or non-observance of the statutes relating to him, reasonable notice in writing of the charge having been first given to the professor by the Vice-Chancellor, to enable him to answer the same if he shall desire to do so. The University may by statute regulate the mode of proceeding on any such charge as aforesaid, and limit the time allowed for giving notice.

See Statt.
tit. IV.
sect. I. §. 26.

3. PROFESSOR OF POLITICAL ECONOMY.

Regulations approved by Convocation, April 29, 1825.

1. THE professor shall be at least a Master of Arts or Bachelor in Civil Law who shall have regularly graduated in the University of Oxford.

2. The professor shall from time to time be elected by the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars of the said University in Convocation assembled, according to the usual form and manner in which officers of the said University are elected.

3. No person shall hold the office of professor for more than five successive years, or be reelected to the said office until after he shall have been out of office during two years.

4. Every such professor shall be required to read in full term during any one or more of the four academical terms in every year, in a place to be appointed by the Vice-Chancellor for the time being, a course of lectures on political economy consisting of nine lectures at the least, and also during every year to print and publish one of such lectures at the least.

5. Every such professor shall give notice, in the manner usual in the case of other public lectures in the said University, of the time proposed for the commencement of every such course of lectures.

6. Three persons at the least shall be required to constitute a class at such course of lectures respectively.

7. Every such professor who shall, during any year or years, neglect to give such notice, or, on the attendance of a class, to read any such course of lectures during the time and in the manner aforesaid, or to print and publish one of such lectures at the least, shall for every such neglect forfeit the whole of his stipend or salary for the year in which such neglect shall take place; and the amount of every such forfeiture shall be laid out in the parliamentary stocks or funds in the name of the said Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars; and the interest of such stocks or funds shall be applied to the augmentation of the professorship in future.

4. BODEN PROFESSOR OF SANSKRIT.

See Stat.
tit. IV.
sect. 1. §. 27.

Extract from a scheme for the future management and regulation of the Boden foundation, approved and sanctioned by order of the court of chancery February 13, 1860, comprising so much of the scheme as relates to the professorship.

I. THE professor is required to be, at the time of his admission to the professorship, a matriculated member of some college or hall; and in default thereof, or in case of his ceasing to be a member of the University, and of some college or hall therein, his appointment to the professorship is to be ipso facto void.

II. The right of election to the professorship is vested in the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars in Convocation assembled.

III. The election is to take place on some day in full term, and the professor is to be elected and admitted to his office according to the usual form in which other professors and officers, whose appointments are in the nomination of the said University, are elected and admitted in Convocation: and the admission is to be within two months from the day of election, except in the case of a person elected when resident abroad, whose admission shall be within eighteen months from the day of his election.

IV. The professor is to hold the professorship for life, except in the following cases; viz.

1. Of his not being a member of the University of Oxford, and matriculated of some college or hall therein.
2. Of his possessing any other professorship in Oxford or elsewhere.
3. Of his neglect of professorial duties, or his failing to reside as hereinafter provided.

4. Of his holding and teaching doctrines contrary to those of the established church of England and Ireland.

5. Of his gross or habitual immorality.

V. If any such case shall come to the knowledge of the Vice-Chancellor, he shall bring it before the delegates of appeals in Congregation, who shall investigate it, and hear the professor if required by him, and upon proof of the facts to their satisfaction, shall be empowered to declare the professorship vacant, whereon a new election is to take place, as if the vacancy had occurred by death.

The delegates of appeals in Congregation shall be empowered in case of the professor's neglect of any of the provisions of this decree, or of any statute of the University made under authority hereof, to admonish the professor, and in case of contumacious persistence or neglect, to declare the professorship vacant.

VI. From and after the election of the first professor, whenever a vacancy shall occur by death, resignation, or otherwise, a day of election is to be fixed (as soon as conveniently may be) by a committee, consisting of the Vice-Chancellor, the regius professor of Divinity, and the regius professor of Hebrew, or, in case of either or both of these professorships being vacant, the place of the regius professor of Divinity is to be supplied by the Margaret professor of Divinity, and the place of regius professor of Hebrew by the Laudian professor of Arabic.

VII. The abovementioned committee, if they shall deem it expedient to enable persons resident abroad to become candidates for the professorship, are empowered to defer the day of election for any time not exceeding eighteen months from the day on which the vacancy occurred, provided that if the eighteen months expire in the time of vacation, the day of election may in such case be further deferred to a day in the ensuing full term.

VIII. As soon as the day of election shall be fixed by the said committee, notice thereof is to be published in the London gazette at least two months before the day of election, and in the event of the said committee deeming it expedient to defer the day of election for the purpose aforesaid, such notice is to be published in one or more newspapers printed and circulated in each of the presidencies of Bengal, Madras, and Bombay.

IX. The annual proceeds of the funds arising from the legacy bequeathed by colonel Boden, and now standing in the name of and vested in the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars of the University of Oxford, are to be received by the Vice-Chancellor for the purposes hereinafter specified; namely, £200 for the half yearly payment of the sum of £50 per annum to each of the four scholars hereinafter mentioned, and all the residue for the half yearly payment of the salary of the said professor, provided such salary shall not at any time exceed £1000 per annum, and whenever the sum available for the professor's salary shall exceed £1000 per annum, the surplus is to accumulate for the encouragement of Sanskrit literature in the University of Oxford, or for such other purpose consistent with the extension of the study of that language as the University shall think proper.

X. The professor is to be entitled to receive his stipend from the day of his admission to the day of his vacating the professorship, subject to the provision hereinafter made in case of his inability, and also subject to a deduction for incidental expenses, the representatives of the professor being (in case of his death) entitled to an apportionment of the stipend due to him at that time.

XI. During the vacancy of the professorship all sums which would have been payable to the professor if living, are to be invested by the Vice-Chancellor of the University in government or real securities.

XII. The professor is to be not under the age of twenty-five years, and to be well versed in Sanskrit literature, and to be possessed of an accurate and critical knowledge of that language.

XIII. The professor is to reside within the precincts of the University for six months between the tenth day of October in each year and the first day of July in the year following.

The University shall have power to determine the number of weeks in each term during which the professor shall lecture, and the number of lectures which he shall be bound to give in each week.

XIV. The professor is to give these lectures gratis to such member or members of the University as shall deliver to him written recommendations from the head or tutor of the college or hall to which he or they may belong.

XV. He is to give these lectures to one person only, if more shall not apply to him to form a class.

XVI. He is to give public notice of the time and place of his intended lectures, in the printed form usually issued by other professors, a fortnight at least before the commencement of his lectures in each term.

XVII. If the professor, either from illness, or from some other urgent cause approved by the Vice-Chancellor, shall be for a time prevented from discharging his duties, he is to name a fit and sufficient deputy, to be approved by the Vice-Chancellor, and in case of his neglect to do this, the Vice-Chancellor is to appoint such deputy.

XVIII. If the professor, from age, or any other cause, shall become permanently incapacitated for discharging the duties of his professorship, a deputy is to be elected by the University in Convocation.

XIX. The deputy is to receive one third of the stipend allowed to the professor, to be deducted from it, and proportioned to the time during which he may have acted as deputy, discharging the same duties, and being subject to the same regulations, as the professor.

See Statt.
tit. IV.
sect. 1. §. 28.

5. REGIUS PROFESSOR OF MODERN HISTORY.

Regulations ordained by queen Victoria in letters patent under the great seal, dated 5 May, 22 Vict. [1859.]

1. OUR professor shall henceforth reside in our University of Oxford for six months in the interval between the first day of October in every year and the first day of July in the following year, except in case of ill health or other sufficient cause to be allowed by the Vice-Chancellor of our said University, and certified by writing under his hand.

2. Two solemn lectures at least shall be read by our professor annually in full term, in a public place to be assigned by the Vice-Chancellor of our said University; and such solemn lectures shall be on some subject of modern history or political biography; and the admission thereto shall be free to all members of our University; and the time and place of giving the said lectures shall be notified in such manner as shall for the time be usual.

3. Our professor shall give, in some public place to be from time to time assigned to him by the said Vice-Chancellor, or within the walls of his college, two courses of catechetical lectures on some text book of modern history, one in each of two terms in every year, Easter and Act terms being for this purpose taken as one term. Provided that, if in the judgment of our professor some other mode of teaching his hearers on these two courses of lectures shall be found by experience to be more expedient, he shall be at liberty to use such mode; so however that the number of lectures in these two courses shall not be less than we hereby prescribe, that each of the said courses shall consist of not less than eighteen lectures. Provided that our professor may, if he shall think fit, divide the scholars attending his said catechetical lectures into two or more classes; in which case twelve lectures at least shall be given to each class in the term. Provided also, that our University shall have power to determine from time to time the greatest and least number of lectures to be given in any one week; and that our professor shall be at liberty, if he shall think proper so to do, to set subjects for essays or other exercises on modern history.

4. Our professor shall not be bound to admit to his said catechetical lectures any persons who have not passed the first public examination, nor any person who is not recommended by the head, vicegerent, or any of the tutors of his college or hall.

5. Our professor shall require no higher fee from persons attending his said catechetical lectures than the sum of one pound for each course, or such other sum as may from time to time be permitted by decree or statute of our University.

6. Our professor shall give due notice of the time and place of delivery or holding his said catechetical lectures in such manner as shall for the time being be usual.

7. In case of necessary absence from our University, arising from ill health or other cause to be allowed by the said Vice-Chancellor as aforesaid, our professor, with the consent of one of our principal secretaries of state, shall appoint a sufficient deputy, to be approved of by the said Vice-Chancellor; and the deputy so appointed shall receive such salary from our professor as to the hebdomadal council of our said University shall seem fit.

8. In case our said professor shall omit to give any of the said lectures at the time and place to be appointed as aforesaid, he shall be admonished by the Vice-Chancellor, unless he shall satisfy the said Vice-Chancellor that the omission was due to some unavoidable accident, and not to neglect: and in case our professor shall be grossly negligent of his duties, or shall be guilty of immorality, the Vice-Chancellor, with the consent of the hebdomadal council, shall report such gross neglect or immorality to one of our principal secretaries of state, in order that our royal pleasure may be had thereupon.

6. PROFESSOR OF RURAL ECONOMY.

See Stat.
tit. IV.
sect. 1. §. 80.

Extract from the will of John Sibthorp, D.M., professor of botany, dated January 12, 1796, by which he devised an estate at Stanton Harcourt to the University.

THE complete sum of two hundred pounds to be paid annually to a professor of rural economy, who shall be the Sherardian professor of botany, conditionally, viz. that he, the said professor, shall read in each term a public lecture on rural economy, and shall appropriate some part of his garden to the cultivation of such plants as are used more particularly in agriculture and the arts. And should he, the said professor, neglect to read either his public or private lectures, he is to be mulcted or punished in the same manner as the Vinerian professor of law in the said University. And it is expected that the said professor shall not pursue or look after the profits arising from the practice of physic, but give up his time for the benefit of the public in the lecture of books and in the instruction of students on the subject he professes.

And for furnishing the said professor with proper books I do devise and bequeath the remainder of the rents over and above the two hundred pounds to be paid to the professor of rural economy for the purchase of books on the subject of botany and rural economy; the professor making a list of such books as he judges most useful, and submitting it to the garden committee annually, who shall direct the purchase of what they judge most proper; the said books to be carefully preserved in a distinct part of the library for the professor of botany.

But, in case the said professor of botany should not fulfil the duties expected of him, a public University election may take place, and any graduate who is a Master of Arts or of a superior degree may be elected by the University, after the manner of their usual elections, to the professorship of rural economy, provided he has directed his attention to the studies of natural history, and does not engage in the cure of souls nor in the profits of medical or legal practice; in which case it shall be considered as a forfeiture of the professorship, and a new election shall take place.

See Statt.
tit. IV.
sect. 1.
§§. 32, 34.

7. CHICHELE PROFESSORS.

Extracts from the ordinance made in relation to All Souls college by the Oxford University commissioners, April 3, 1857, in pursuance of the act 17 and 18 Vict. c. 81, and afterwards approved by her Majesty in council.

43. THE first, third, fifth, seventh, and ninth fellowships which shall become vacant after the approval of this ordinance by her Majesty in council shall not be filled up, and the emoluments thereof shall be applied to the maintenance within the University of a professor of international law and diplomacy, to be called "Chichele's professor of international law and diplomacy." The election of the said professor shall always be vested in the visitor and the warden of the college, the lord high chancellor of great Britain, the judge of the high court of Admiralty, and her Majesty's secretary of state for foreign affairs for the time being, or the major part of them. * * * * The University may define by statute, and from time to time regulate, the functions and duties of the professor, and may provide for the performance of them by deputy in case of his unavoidable absence or incapacity, and for the suitable payment of any such deputy out of the professor's emoluments, and may determine whether the professor shall be permitted to receive any and what fees for attendance on his instructions, provided that no such fees shall be payable by any member of the college. The professor shall reside in the University for six months at least between the tenth day of October in every year and the first day of the next ensuing July, and in default thereof shall vacate his professorship, unless leave of absence shall have been granted to him on account of sickness, or for any other very urgent cause, by or by authority of the University. It shall be lawful for the Vice-Chancellor and the delegates of appeals in Congregation, or the greater part of them, to deprive of his professorship any professor who, in their judgment, shall have been proved to be guilty of culpable negligence or misconduct in his office, grave immorality, or non-observance of the statutes relating to him, reasonable notice in writing of the charge having been first given to the professor by the Vice-Chancellor, to enable him to answer the same if he shall desire to do so. The University may by statute regulate the mode of proceeding on any such charge as aforesaid, and limit the time allowed for giving notice. * * * *

44. The eleventh, thirteenth, fifteenth, seventeenth, and nineteenth fellowships which shall become vacant after the approval of this ordinance shall not be filled up, and the emoluments thereof shall be applied to the maintenance within the University of a professor of modern history, to be called "Chichele's professor of modern history." All the provisions of clause 43, relating to the election, deprivation, residence, functions, duties, and emoluments of the professor of international law and diplomacy, . . . shall extend and be applicable mutatis mutandis to the said professor of modern history, as if repeated in this clause.

8. WAYNFLETE PROFESSORS.

Extracts from the ordinance made in relation to Magdalen college by the Oxford University commissioners, August 4, 1857, in pursuance of the act 17 and 18 Vict. c. 81, and afterwards approved by her Majesty in council.

See Statt.
tit. IV.
sect. 1.
§§. 33, 35.

2. IN lieu of the prælectorships of theology, moral philosophy, and natural philosophy, mentioned in the existing statutes, there shall be founded and maintained within the college a professorship of moral and metaphysical philosophy, a professorship of chemistry, a professorship of mineralogy, and a professorship of physical geography. The said four professorships shall be called "Waynflete professorships," and the stipend of each professorship shall be six hundred pounds per annum.

* * * * *

8. The Waynflete professorships shall be established in the order and priority in which they are hereinbefore enumerated.

9. The Waynflete professors shall always be elected as follows, namely :

The professor of moral and metaphysical philosophy by the Chancellor of the University, the visitor and the president of the college, the regius professor of Divinity, and the regius professor of Civil Law, for the time being, or the major part of them.

The professors of chemistry and mineralogy by the Chancellor of the University, the visitor and president of the college, the president of the royal society, and the president of the royal college of physicians, for the time being, or the major part of them.

The professor of physical geography by the Chancellor of the University, the visitor and president of the college, the president of the royal society, and the astronomer royal, for the time being, or the major part of them.

* * * * *

12. The University may by statute define, and from time to time regulate, the functions and duties of the four Waynflete professors respectively, and may make provision for the performance by deputy of each professor's duties in case of his unavoidable absence or incapacity, and may determine whether the professors shall be permitted to receive any and what fees for attendance on their instruction, provided that no such fees shall be payable by any member of the college ; and that the lectures of each professor shall be delivered, if and so far as it can conveniently be done, within the precincts of the college. If any professor shall fail to reside within the University for six calendar months at least, between the tenth day of October in every year and the first day of the next ensuing July, he shall forfeit one year's payment of the stipend appropriated to him, unless previous leave of absence, or a subsequent dispensation in respect of the default, shall have been granted to him on account of sickness, or any other very urgent cause, by or by authority of the University, and the payment so forfeited shall sink into the divisible revenues of the college. It shall be lawful for the Vice-Chancellor and the delegates of appeals in Congregation, or the greater part of them, to deprive of his professorship any professor who in their judgment shall have been proved to be guilty of culpable negligence or misconduct in his office, grave immorality, or non-observance of the statutes relating to him, or who shall contumaciously cease to conform to the liturgy of the united church of England and Ireland; reasonable notice in writing of the charge having been first given to the professor by the Vice-Chancellor, to enable him to answer the same, if he shall desire to do so. The University may by statute regulate the mode of proceeding on any such charge as aforesaid, and limit the time allowed for giving notice.

9. HOPE PROFESSOR OF ZOOLOGY.

Regulations contained in an indenture made December 20, 1860, between the reverend Frederick William Hope of the one part and the Chancellor Masters and Scholars of the University of Oxford of the other part, for declaring the trusts of £10,000 new £3 per cent. annuities transferred by Mr. Hope to the University.

1. THERE shall be for ever hereafter a professor, to be called the "Hope professor of zoology;" and the dividends arising from the said sum of £10,000 new £3 per cent. annuities shall from time to time, as and when the same become due, be paid to such professor, subject as hereinafter provided.

2. The nomination of the first and every subsequent Hope professor, during the lifetime of the said Frederick William Hope, shall be made by the said Frederick William Hope.

3. Every subsequent Hope professor, after the death of the said Frederick William Hope, shall be elected by the curators for the time being of the Hope collections, or by a majority of those present at such election; each curator having one vote, and the Linacre professor of physiology for the time being shall have the same right of voting as if he were a curator; and in cases of an equality of votes for two candidates, the Vice-Chancellor for the time being shall have a second or casting vote.

5. The Hope professor shall at the time of his admission be at least a Master of Arts or a Bachelor of Civil Law or Medicine.

7. The Hope professor shall reside in the University for the term of eight months in every academical year between the first of October and the fifteenth of July.

8. The Hope professor shall retain his office during good behaviour.

11. The Vice-Chancellor and delegates of appeals in Congregation, or the greater part of them, shall have power to proceed against the professor in case of misconduct, in the same manner as is provided by the statutes respecting the moral philosophy professor and other professors, sanctioned by her Majesty; and in the event of their finding it necessary to remove the professor, the said Frederick William Hope, if living, and if he shall not be then living, the Hope curators for the time being, shall immediately proceed to a fresh election.

12. The Hope professor shall be entitled to receive from his auditors such fees only as shall be fixed by the University, in addition to the dividends arising from the said £10,000 new £3 per cent. annuities.

13. The Hope professor shall not hold any other professorship or readership in the University.

10. SLADE PROFESSOR OF FINE ART.

Regulations contained in an indenture made June 2, 1869, between Edward Weyman Wadeson, Charles Collambell, Richard Fisher, and Augustus Wollaston Franks, esquires, the trustees and executors of the late Felix Slade, esquire, of the one part, and the Chancellor Masters and Scholars of the University of Oxford, of the other part, for declaring the trusts of £12,000 reduced £3 per cent. annuities transferred by the executors to the University.

N. B. In the recital of the indenture the executors are styled "the donors;" and the very reverend Dr. Liddell, dean of Christ Church, Dr. Acland, and the rev. G. Rawlinson, being three of the curators of the University galleries, the rev. H. O. Coxe, Bodley's librarian, Sir Francis Grant, president of the royal academy of London, George Grote, esq., president of University college, London, and R. Fisher, esq., one of the executors, are named as the first board of electors.

1. The purposes for which the trust fund and the income thereof are to be held are the establishment of a professorship to be called "the Slade professorship of fine art" in the said University with a stipend consisting of the said income or so much thereof as shall from time to time remain after payment of the expenses (if any) of the trust.

2. The professorship shall be tenable for three years; and a professor whose term of office shall have expired shall be re-eligible.

3. The professor shall give annually in the University galleries, or in some other place to be appointed by the Vice-Chancellor, a course of not less than twelve lectures on the history, theory, and practice of the fine arts, or of some section or sections of them. The lectures shall be given in full term and be distributed through at least two terms in the academical year (Easter and Act terms being together counted as one term), and shall be open to all members of the University: but the board of electors shall have power to allow all the lectures to be given in one term only on sufficient cause being shewn by the professor.

4. The professor shall be elected by the board of electors; such board to consist of seven members, four of them to be resident at Oxford and three to be non-resident; subject nevertheless to the proviso hereinafter contained in clause 7.

5. The several persons from time to time holding the following offices, viz. those of the three curators of the University galleries, or, if there be more than three curators, then such three of them as shall from time to time be selected in that behalf by the hebdomadal council for the time being, Bodley's librarian in the University of Oxford, the president of the royal academy of London, and the president of University college, London, shall from time to time be six of the said board of electors; and the six persons now holding such offices respectively and hereinbefore named as electors shall accordingly be six of the members of the first or present board; and the said Richard Fisher (who has been appointed for the purpose by the donors) shall during his life, or until he shall become unwilling or incapable or unfit to act, be the seventh member of the first or present board; and upon his death, or in case he shall become unwilling or incapable or unfit to act, the donors or the survivors or survivor of them may by deed nominate some public office (not being an office in the said University) the tenure of which shall constitute the holder thereof from time to time the seventh member of the said board; and in default of such nomination the right so to nominate shall devolve upon the hebdomadal council for the time being of the said University.

6. Each present elector (other than the said Richard Fisher), and every successor to each such elector, shall, on ceasing to hold the office now held by him, cease to be an elector; and the person to be appointed to each such office shall immediately upon his appointment to and acceptance of the same become, if willing so to be, an elector under these presents in the place of the elector so ceasing as aforesaid; and this provision shall apply mutatis mutandis to any official successor of the said Richard Fisher in the electorship.

7. If from the alteration or abrogation of any of the offices above named or any other cause there shall be a permanent vacancy in the board, the hebdomadal council shall select some other office the holder of which shall take the vacant place at the board; provided that the number of four resident and three non-resident members be always preserved. Provided always, that, if and so often as any elector or electors shall decline or neglect to act, the other electors shall constitute a full and perfect board.

8. The resident member of the board of the highest academical standing shall be chairman of the board. All matters brought before the board shall be decided by a majority of votes; and in case of an equality of votes the chairman shall have a second or casting vote. He shall see that not less than one calendar month's notice be given to the other electors of any vacancy in the professorship, and of the day, hour, and place proposed for the election of a successor, and of the name or names of the candidate or candidates; and shall also see that not less than a week's notice be given to the other electors of the day, hour, place, and purpose of any other meeting of the board.

9. The members of the board shall be entitled to transmit their votes in writing for the election or compulsory retirement of a professor, but shall vote on any other business only when personally present at a meeting of the board.

10. Should the professor, either from illness, or from any urgent cause to be approved by the Vice-Chancellor, be temporarily prevented from discharging his duties, he shall name a fit and sufficient deputy to be approved by the board of electors; and in case of his declining or neglecting so to do the board of electors shall appoint such deputy. It shall rest with the board to determine what portion of the professor's stipend shall be assigned to the deputy.

11. If at any future time the University shall think fit to augment the stipend of the professor by a sum amounting at least to £200 a year, it shall be competent to the University in Convocation, with the consent of the donors or the survivors or survivor of them so long as any of them live and of the board of electors, to impose such conditions respecting the tenure of office, residence, and number of lectures as may be deemed expedient.

12. A professor may at any time retire from office, and may by an unanimous vote of all the electors be compelled so to retire.

13. Upon the death, resignation, or retirement from office of a professor the current income of the trust fund shall be fairly apportioned between himself or his executors or administrators and his successor; and such successor shall be considered to succeed to office immediately upon such death, resignation, or retirement, unless the same shall have occurred three calendar months or upwards prior to his own appointment; and in such case so much of the current income as may be attributable to the period during which the professorship shall have been vacant shall not be paid to such successor, but shall go in augmentation of the trust fund and be invested accordingly. And such income as may upon a fair apportionment be attributable to the interval which shall elapse between the date of these presents and the first appointment of a professor shall, if such interval amounts to or exceeds three calendar months, go and be invested in like manner; but, if such interval be less than three calendar months, such income shall belong and be paid to the professor first appointed and accepting office.

The present regulations are embodied in a Deed of Declaration of Trust, to which the University Seal was affixed June 3, 1875.

The Deed is printed at length in the University Gazette of June 1, 1875. The Master of Drawing is to be appointed by Mr. Ruskin during his life, and after his death the appointment is vested in the Ruskin Trustees.

2. THE HOPE COLLECTIONS, AND THE KEEPER OF THE HOPE COLLECTION OF ENGRAVINGS.

(a.) Conditions set forth in the deed of gift of the entomological collection, library of natural history, plates, engravings, and other articles and effects of the reverend Frederick William Hope, dated August 4, 1849, approved by Convocation April 23, 1850.

1. THAT a suitable building or rooms shall be provided within the University for the reception of the said collection, library, articles, and effects, as soon as conveniently may be arranged, either at the expense of the said University, or by means of contributions from other sources.

2. That the said collection, library, articles, and effects shall be made practically useful, as a means of extending and improving a knowledge of the entomological department of natural history; and that for that purpose the same shall at all seasonable times be free of access to members of the University and other persons, especially to learned naturalists and other scientific persons of foreign countries; subject however to such regulations as the curators for the time being shall think fit; and it being hereby declared to be the wish and desire of the said Frederick William Hope, that, so far as may be found practicable and convenient, the said collection shall be opened daily, between the hours of ten in the morning and three in the afternoon in winter, and ten in the morning and four in the afternoon in summer, Sundays and Holydays excepted.

3. That the Vice-Chancellor, the two Proctors, the regius professor of Medicine, the keeper of the Ashmolean museum of the said University, and the Hope professor, and their successors in the same several offices for the time being, and also the reverend Richard Greswell of Worcester college, B. D., and Henry Wentworth Acland of All Souls college in the said University, D. M., and their successors to be appointed from time to time as hereinafter mentioned, shall be curators. And upon the death, refusal, or incapacity to act of the said Richard Greswell and Henry Wentworth Acland or either of them, then a new curator or two new curators, as the case may be, shall be nominated by the surviving or other curators; such nomination to be approved by the University in Convocation: and so from time to time, as often as any vacancy shall occur in any or either of the non-official curators; it being the intention that there shall always be two other curators in addition to the five official curators.

Decr. Conv.
Dec. 13,
1864.

4. That the curators for the time being shall have full power and authority, from time to time, as they shall see fit, to frame rules and regulations for the safe custody and preservation of all the property, and for the management of and access to the said collection, and for the use of the library ; but, in the event of a managing curator or inspector being appointed for the better custody and preservation of the said collection, the consent of the said Frederick William Hope during his life time shall be necessary to such appointment.

5. That the curators shall also have power, on obtaining the consent thereto of the said Frederick William Hope during his life time, and after his decease of their own authority, to dispose of any duplicates in the entomological collection to any museum, institution, or person, upon such terms and in such manner as they shall think proper ; but that this power shall not extend to the disposing of any other specimens comprised in the said collection. And, with a view to prevent any infested insect being added to and injuring the said collection, no addition shall be made thereto, unless previously approved of by the said Frederick William Hope or some competent person under the authority of the curators.

6. That, if a new University museum shall be established in Oxford, and a library formed in connection with it, the curators shall have power to place the whole of this collection in suitable rooms to be provided in such museum : but the library and the plates and engravings shall in any case be under the entire control of the curators, who may dispose of the same in any way which they shall consider most conducive to the study of natural history within the University as well as to the use of the same in connection with the entomological collection.

7. That in all the more important proceedings relative to this collection, such as the framing new rules or regulations, the appointment of curators, and the disposition of duplicates or of the library, the concurrence of four at least of the curators present at a meeting to be called for any such purpose shall be requisite.

(b.) Regulations contained in an indenture made July 5, 1862, between Ellen Hope, widow and sole executrix of the reverend Frederick William Hope, of the one part, and the Chancellor Masters and Scholars of the University of Oxford, of the other part, for declaring the trusts of £10,000 new £3 per cent. annuities transferred by Mrs. Hope to the University.

N. B. The recital of the indenture speaks of the indenture of December 20, 1860, relating to the Hope professor of zoology, and mentions Dr. Wellesley as one of the Hope curators.

1. A competent person shall forthwith be appointed to make and perfect one or more catalogue or catalogues of the portraits, topographical and other engravings, presented by the said Frederick William Hope to the said University, and also to make and perfect one or more complete catalogue or catalogues (properly classified and arranged) of the whole biographical, topographical, and fine arts library of books presented by him to the said University, and to take charge of the said collection of portraits, topographical and fine art engravings, and of all future additions thereto, and of the said biographical, topographical, and fine arts library.

2. The person so to be appointed shall be called "the keeper of the Hope collection of engravings;" and, as often as a vacancy shall occur, a successor shall be appointed, who shall bear the same title.

3. The nomination of the first and every subsequent keeper during the life time of the said Ellen Hope shall be made by her.

4. Every subsequent keeper after the death of the said Ellen Hope shall be elected by the Hope curators in the manner provided by the said indenture of December 20, 1860, for the election of a Hope professor; and the Bodleian librarian for the time being and the Hope professor of zoology for the time being shall have the same right of voting as if they were curators.

See Appendix A. 9, par. 3.

5. The duty of the keeper shall in the first instance be to make and perfect the said catalogue or catalogues, and he shall perform such further duties as the Hope curators shall reasonably impose on him.

6. The keeper shall reside in the University for such period in every academical year as shall be determined upon by the Hope curators; and he shall retain his office during good behaviour. And, the said collections having been, with the approval of the late Frederick William Hope, deposited in the building heretofore used as the Radcliffe library, which is now placed under the supervision of the Bodleian librarian, he shall exercise such superintending control over the Hope keeper as may be reasonable in enforcing compliance with all general rules and regulations for the management of the said building and the contents thereof.

7. In case of the unavoidable absence of the keeper from illness or other cause, the said Ellen Hope during her life, and the Hope curators after her death, may appoint a deputy to act either temporarily or permanently, as circumstances may require; and an allowance shall be made to any permanent deputy out of the stipend hereinafter made payable to the keeper.

8. Of the dividends of the £10,000 new £3 per cent. annuities so transferred by the said Ellen Hope as aforesaid one third shall be paid as a stipend to the keeper of the Hope collection of engravings for the time being, one third to the Hope professor of zoology for the time being in augmentation of his present income, and the remaining one third shall be paid to the Hope curators or any two of them, and shall be applied, as to one moiety, in keeping up and increasing the said collection of portraits, and, as to the other moiety, in keeping up and increasing the said entomological collection.

9. The Hope curators shall have absolute discretion as to the portraits and specimens to be purchased in augmentation of the said collections respectively; but, in adding to the said entomological collection, they shall have regard to the opinion of the Hope professor of zoology, and shall not be bound to confine themselves to insects only, but may purchase specimens of fishes, reptiles, and such other animals as he shall recommend and the curators shall consider to come within the scope of the founder's views.

10. The Hope curators shall also have power to expend part of the dividends applicable for the purposes of the said collections respectively in purchasing or repairing cabinets, cases, or other things connected therewith.

11. The catalogue or catalogues so to be made and perfected as aforesaid shall be completed to the satisfaction of the said Dr. Wellesley, or of such other person as in case of his death or unwillingness to act shall be in that behalf nominated by the said Ellen Hope, her executors or administrators; and if not completed within such time as the said Dr. Wellesley, or such other person as aforesaid, shall deem reasonable, the said Ellen Hope, her executors or administrators, shall have absolute power to remove the keeper and by any writing under her or their hand or hands to appoint another person as keeper in his stead.

12. Additions made to the said collections respectively shall be duly noted and catalogued; but the catalogues now and hereafter to be made shall be so framed that such additions may always be distinguished and may not be confounded with the original gifts.

13. In the event of the Hope curators not meeting in every year with portraits or specimens suitable in their judgment for increasing the said collections respectively, they may invest and accumulate any surplus income, but keeping separate accounts of such investments, and with the obligation to apply all such accumulations as income for the purposes aforesaid in some year or years within five years from the commencement of the accumulation. Provided always that under no pretence whatsoever shall the income hereby intended for keeping up and increasing the said collections respectively, or any part thereof, or any accumulation thereof, be applied for the personal benefit of the keeper, the Hope professor, or any other person or persons.

14. Proper books of account shall be kept by the Hope curators, in which full particulars shall be entered of the application of the dividends hereinbefore made payable to them, and such accounts shall be audited in the month of October in every year.

15. In the interpretation of these presents "the Hope curators" shall mean the curators for the time being of the Hope collections, and three of them shall constitute a quorum.

3. THE FIELDING HERBARIUM.

Conditions, on which the Herbarium collected by Henry Borrow Fielding, esq., was offered by his widow to the University and accepted by Convocation, June 15, 1852.

1. That the University provide a proper building for the preservation of the "Fielding herbarium," so as to render it accessible to botanists, under such regulations as the University may establish.

2. That the University set apart a sum of not less than £2000 for the purpose of creating a fund, the interest of which shall be applied to the maintaining of, and adding to, the collection.

3. That the collection be placed under the control of curators; to consist of the professor of botany and the regius professor of medicine for the time being, and a third curator, to be appointed by them, who shall be a member of the University.

4. That the curators submit a statement of their accounts to the garden committee at their annual audit.

XII. Section forty-five of the said act of the session of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of her present Majesty shall be repealed, and in lieu thereof be it enacted, that the Vice-Chancellor of the said University may from time to time, with the approval of any three of the judges of her Majesty's superior courts, make rules for regulating the practice and forms of procedure in all proceedings within the jurisdiction of the court of the Chancellor of the said University, commonly called the Vice-Chancellor's court, and may from time to time, with the like approval, annul, alter, or add to any such rules*.

* Rules for regulating the practice and forms of procedure in the Chancellor's court in civil cases, duly made and approved in pursuance of this act, came into force March 1, 1865.

F.—CONCERNING SCHOLARSHIPS.

1. DEAN IRELAND'S SCHOLARSHIPS.

Regulations contained in an indenture made April 20, 1825, between the very reverend John Ireland, D.D., dean of Westminster, of the one part, and the Chancellor Masters and Scholars of the University of Oxford, of the other part, for declaring the trusts of £4000 consolidated £3 per cent. annuities transferred by dean Ireland to the University.

I. THERE shall be four scholarships of thirty pounds a year each, to be called "dean Ireland's scholarships," for the promotion of classical learning and taste, no regard being had to place of birth, school, parentage, or pecuniary circumstances of the candidates.

II. The candidates shall be undergraduate members of the University of Oxford, who shall not have exceeded their sixteenth term from their matriculation inclusively.

III. No person shall be received as a candidate without the consent of the head of his college or hall, or the consent of the vicegerent in the absence of the said head. And such consent, as well as the standing of the candidate, shall be expressed in writing, and signed by the said head or vicegerent.

IV. The scholarship may be holden for four calendar years from the day of election, provided the scholar shall keep by residence two academical terms in each year. The residence of every scholar shall be certified in writing by the head of his college or hall, or by the vicegerent in the absence of the said head. The trustees however may dispense with the residence of the scholar, in case of illness or other very urgent cause, duly certified to and approved by them, and recorded in a book open to inspection in the Convocation house. This dispensation shall never be given more than once to the same scholar.

V. The dividends of the said four thousand pounds three per cent. consolidated bank annuities, and of all other stock hereafter to be purchased pursuant to these regulations, shall be payable to the trustees hereby appointed.

VI. These trustees shall be five; viz. the Vice-Chancellor, the two Proctors, the provost of Oriel college for the time being, and the dean of Christ church for the time being; but whenever either the provost of Oriel college or the dean of Christ church shall be Vice-Chancellor, then and in that case only the master of Balliol college for the time being shall be a trustee to all intents and purposes whatsoever. In cases of equality, the Vice-Chancellor shall have the casting vote. The presence of the Vice-Chancellor and of two other trustees (one of the two being a head of a house) shall be necessary to constitute a board.

1. To receive the dividends from the University.
2. To discharge all expenses incident to the trust, and to pay the scholars their salary on their producing the requisite certificate of residence, unless dispensed with under the limitation above mentioned in regulation IV.
3. To keep an account of moneys received and paid.
4. To lay out the remainder of the dividends, either in presents of money or books for meritorious though unsuccessful candidates, or in the purchase of stock in the names of the said Chancellor, Masters and Scholars, to be employed in promoting the general object of the institution at such times and in such manner as the said trustees shall think expedient.

5. To submit their accounts annually to be audited by the delegates of the University accounts.

6. To appoint for each election of a scholar, three examiners, who shall examine the candidates and elect the scholar.

7. Each of these examiners shall be at least a Master of Arts or a Bachelor in Civil Law.

8. The same individual shall never be appointed examiner more than twice consecutively.

9. Two examiners shall not be of the same college or hall.

VII. Examination of candidates and election of scholars.

1. Only one scholar shall be elected in one calendar year; the money accumulated in consequence of vacancies shall be employed as directed by regulation VI. article 4.

2. The first election shall be in the full term immediately succeeding the completion of the foundation.

3. After the first election, every subsequent election shall take place annually in Lent term.

4. A notice of not less than twenty days shall be given by the examiners, of the time and place fixed by them for holding the examination; which notice is to be affixed to the door of the Convocation house, and to the buttry door in each college and hall.

5. Every candidate shall signify his intention of offering himself, by delivering to the examiners the certificates of his standing, and of the consent of the head or vicegerent of his college or hall, two days at least before the commencement of the examination; and without such certificates the examiners shall not proceed to examine any candidate.

6. All the three examiners shall act in the examination, and vote at the election.

In other respects the examination shall be left entirely to the discretion of the examiners

7. When the examiners have elected a scholar, they shall certify the election to the Vice-Chancellor, who shall cause it to be announced to the University by a paper affixed to the door of the Convocation house.

VIII. The intention of the founder having been expressed in the first and second of these regulations, the subsequent ones have been devised for the purpose of giving due effect to it. But as, after experience of their operation, some alteration of them may be found expedient, the trustees shall be at liberty (with the concurrence of the founder while he lives, and of Convocation at all times) to make such alterations as circumstances may require. The alterations however thus permitted shall not extend to the first and second regulations, which contain the original and permanent intention of the founder; but shall be applied only to the subsequent regulations, being the means devised for giving effect to that intention.

2. BODEN SCHOLARSHIPS.

Extract from a scheme for the future management and regulation of the Boden foundation, approved and sanctioned by order of the court of chancery February 13, 1860, comprising so much of the scheme as relates to the scholarships.

I. THERE shall be four scholarships, called "Boden scholarships," in the University of Oxford, for proficiency in the Sanskrit language and literature, each tenable for four years, and with an annual stipend of £50 each, payable half yearly. One scholarship shall be filled up in each year, at such time as the University shall fix from time to time; but if in any year the examiners shall find that there is no candidate worthy of election, then at the next, or any one of the three next ensuing annual elections, the electors may elect a second scholar if they shall deem it expedient so to do, provided that the scholarship so filled up, after a vacancy of one or more years, shall be vacant again at the same time as if it had been filled up in the year in which it was originally vacant.

II. The scholars are to be elected by the Boden professor of Sanskrit, the regius professors of Divinity, Hebrew, and Greek, the Laudian and lord Almoner's professors of Arabic, and the professor of Latin, or any three of them. If there shall not be three official electors willing to act, a deputy or deputies are to be appointed by the electors conjointly. The Boden professor is to convene the electors, and to have a casting vote in case of equality.

III. In each year the electors are to give a month's notice of the day fixed by them for holding an election in such manner as they may think expedient.

IV. The scholarships are to be open for all matriculated members of the colleges and halls in Oxford, who shall not on the day of election have exceeded their 25th year, and who shall produce a satisfactory proof of their age, and a written permission to offer themselves as candidates, signed by the heads or vicegerents of their respective colleges or halls.

V. Every scholar is to have, during the continuance of his scholarship, his name on the books of some college or hall in Oxford.

VI. Every scholar is to keep a statutable residence of three terms in each year, six weeks being required for the residence of Hilary (or Lent) term, six weeks for the residence of Michaelmas term, and three weeks for the residence of Easter and Trinity (or Act) terms respectively.

VII. For default of residence, the following mulcts are to be payable :

For non-residence in one only of the above three terms, half of the annual stipend.

For non-residence in two of the terms, three fourths of the annual stipend.

The mulcts paid for non-residence, and all the proceeds accruing during any accidental vacancy of the scholarships, are to be added to the surplus fund hereinbefore mentioned.

VIII. The scholarship is to be indispensably and ipso facto void, 1st, if the scholar's name be not constantly on the books of some college or hall in Oxford; 2ndly, if the scholar be non-resident all the terms in any one year.

IX. During the necessary residence above specified, the scholars to be required to attend such of the professor's lectures as he shall deem best adapted to their proficiency in the Sanskrit language.

X. At the end of the necessary residence in each term, every scholar is to be examined by the professor, who shall report in writing to the Vice-Chancellor whether he have duly attended the lectures, what is his proficiency in Sanskrit literature, and whether he be worthy to receive his stipend.

XI. No scholar is to receive his stipend unless due attendance on the lectures or sufficient proficiency be certified (as above) by the professor, and also unless his residence be certified in writing by the head or vicegerent of his college or hall.

3. MATHEMATICAL SCHOLARSHIPS, FOUNDED IN 1831.

Revised regulations, approved by Convocation, May 18, 1864.

I. THERE shall be four scholarships for the promotion of mathematical studies, viz., two senior scholarships and two junior scholarships of thirty pounds a year each; no regard being had to place of birth, school, parentage, or pecuniary circumstances of the candidate.

II. Candidates for the senior scholarships shall be members of the University, who are Bachelors of Arts, or have at least passed the examinations necessary for that degree, and who have not exceeded the twenty-sixth term from their matriculation inclusively: and candidates for the junior scholarships shall be members of the University, who have not exceeded eight terms from their matriculation inclusively. Persons matriculated before Easter term 1864, are permitted to offer themselves as candidates, if they have not exceeded nine terms from their matriculation inclusively.

III. Each scholarship may be held for two calendar years from the day of election, provided that the scholar's name be on the books of some college or hall, and that in the case of a junior scholar he produce from the head or vicegerent a certificate of continued attention to mathematical studies.

IV. The dividends arising from the stock already purchased, or hereafter to be purchased in pursuance of these regulations, shall be payable to the trustees hereby appointed.

V. These trustees shall be seven: viz. the Vice-Chancellor, the two Proctors, the Savilian professors of astronomy and geometry, the Sedleian professor of natural philosophy, and the professor of experimental philosophy. In case of votes being equally divided, the Vice-Chancellor shall have the casting vote: and the presence of the Vice-Chancellor, and of two other trustees, (one of them being a professor,) shall be necessary to constitute a board.

VI. The duties of the trustees shall be,

1. To receive the dividends from the University.
2. To discharge all expenses incident to the trust, and to pay the scholars their salary on their producing the requisite certificates.
3. To keep an account of moneys received and paid.
4. To lay out the remainder of the dividends either in presents of money, instruments, or books for meritorious though unsuccessful candidates, or in the purchase of stock in the name of the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars, to be employed in promoting the general object of the institution, at such times and in such manner as the said trustees shall think expedient.
5. To submit their accounts annually to be audited by the delegates of the University accounts.
6. To appoint for the election of the scholars three examiners, who shall examine the candidates, and elect the scholars. Each of these examiners shall be at least a Master of Arts, a Bachelor of Medicine, or a Bachelor of Civil Law.

7. The same individual shall never be appointed examiner more than twice consecutively.

8. Two examiners shall not be of the same college or hall.

VII. Only two scholars shall be elected in one calendar year, one to the senior scholarship, and one to the junior scholarship; the one elected to the senior scholarship shall be the Johnson University scholar for that year. The examiners may recommend meritorious though unsuccessful candidates to the notice of the trustees, in accordance with the provision of regulation VI. 4.

See Statt.
tit. XIX.
sect. VII.

VIII. The election shall take place annually in Lent term.

IX. A notice of not less than twenty days shall be given by the examiners of the time and place appointed by them for holding each examination; which notice is to be affixed to the door of the Convocation house, and to the buttery door in each college and hall.

X. No person shall be received as a candidate without the consent of the head of his college or hall, or the consent of the vicegerent in the absence of the said head; and such consent, as well as the standing of the candidate, being expressed in writing and signed by the said head or vicegerent, shall be exhibited to the examiners two days at least before the commencement of the examination, together with the testimonial or testimonials of the public examiners, which shall be produced by the candidate for the senior scholarship, in case he shall not have taken the degree of Bachelor of Arts.

XI. All the three examiners shall act in the examination, and vote at the election.

In other respects the examination shall be left entirely at the discretion of the examiners.

XII. When the examiners have elected a scholar, they shall certify such election to the Vice-Chancellor, who shall cause it to be announced to the University by a paper affixed to the door of the Convocation house.

XIII. If after experience of these regulations any part of them shall be deemed inexpedient, the trustees shall be at liberty, with the concurrence of Convocation, to make such alterations as circumstances may require.

4. PUSEY AND ELLERTON HEBREW SCHOLARSHIPS.

*Regulations approved by Convocation,
March 22, 1832.*

I. THAT the sum of 30*l.* shall at the first be annually paid to each of the three scholars who shall be elected in the manner hereinafter mentioned; and that this stipend shall continue, provided the circumstances of the estate shall permit the required payment; and shall be from time to time increased, whenever the proceeds shall allow the addition of 5*l.* to each scholarship.

II. That all members of the University under the degree of M.A. or B.C.L., and any persons who having taken either of those degrees shall not have exceeded twenty-five years of age, shall be eligible to these scholarships.

III. That the scholarships be holden for three calendar years from the day of election, provided that the following conditions be complied with. Every scholar shall reside in the first two years after his election to a scholarship, as follows; viz. not less than seven weeks in the Michaelmas and Lent terms respectively of each year, and seven weeks in the Easter and Act terms of some one of the two years. During this residence the scholars shall be required to attend the lectures of the professor of Hebrew, unless he dispense with their attendance, and shall pursue their studies in that and the cognate languages as the professor shall advise. The residence of every scholar shall be certified in writing to the trustees hereinafter appointed, by the head of his college or hall, or by the vicegerent in the absence of the said head. And his attendance upon the lectures of the professor of Hebrew, or his dispensation from attendance on them, shall be certified in writing by the said professor. The trustees may dispense with the residence of a scholar during any two of the said periods of seven weeks for any very urgent cause, and during any two more, if he can make it appear to the trustees, that he can pursue any branch of these studies to greater advantage elsewhere; but in either case such dispensation must be approved by an absolute majority of the whole number, of whom the regius professor of Hebrew or the reader in Arabic shall always be one.

IV. That the proceeds arising from this benefaction be payable to the trustees hereinafter appointed.

V. That these trustees be the Vice-Chancellor, the president of Magdalen college, the dean of Christ church, the warden of Wadham college, the regius professor of Divinity, the regius professor of Hebrew, and the lord Almoner's reader in Arabic, respectively, for the time being. The presence of three trustees shall be necessary to form a board.

VI. That the trustees pay the scholars the sum specified in regulation I. on their producing the requisite certificates; discharge all other expenses incident to the trust; and submit their accounts annually to the delegates of the University accounts, to be audited by them.

VII. That the trustees shall invest in the public funds, in the name of the Chancellor Masters and Scholars of the University, any surplus which may remain after the above payments have been made; unless the trustees shall think it advisable to appropriate any part of it in prizes, either to meritorious though unsuccessful candidates, or for compositions on any subject connected with the object of the foundation.

VIII. That the electors be the regius professor of Divinity, the regius professor of Hebrew, and the lord Almoner's reader in Arabic for the time being; and the same electors shall be judges of any prize compositions, whenever any prizes (as contemplated in regulation VII.) may be given. And if in either case any one or more of these official electors decline acting, or if the office of professor or reader be vacant, the trustees shall appoint an elector or electors for that time in his or their stead.

IX. 1. That only one scholar be elected in one calendar year. And if the electors at any time shall not think any of the candidates worthy of the scholarship, they may decline to elect till the next year.

2. The examination shall always take place in Act term, and the first shall be in the year 1832.

3. The electors shall give a notice of not less than ten days of the time for the holding the examination. This notice shall be affixed to the door of the Convocation house and to the buttery door of each college and hall, and distributed to the heads of colleges and halls, and the common-rooms.

4. Every candidate shall signify his intention of offering himself by delivering to the electors a certificate of the consent of the head or vicegerent of his college or hall, together with a certificate of his age, if necessary, two days at least before the commencement of the examination; and without such certificate or certificates the electors shall not proceed to examine any candidate.

5. The three electors conjointly shall be empowered to bestow, with the consent of the trustees, presents of money or books (not exceeding the sum of 10*l*.) upon any unsuccessful candidate whom they shall judge worthy of that distinction.

6. The mode of conducting the examination shall be left entirely to the electors. Besides an accurate and critical acquaintance with the original Scriptures of the Old Testament, the application of the knowledge of Hebrew to the illustration of the New, or to that of any portion of theology, lies within the contemplation of the founders. Since, moreover, a sound and extensive acquaintance with other Semitic tongues is very essential to the thorough understanding of Hebrew, and in other ways serviceable to the exposition of Holy Scripture, it is recommended that candidates should be examined in as many of them as may be practicable. Nevertheless a scholarship shall not be awarded to a candidate, how well soever acquainted with any or all of the cognate dialects, unless he be also a proficient in Hebrew.

7. The electors, on electing a scholar, shall certify the election to the Vice-Chancellor, who shall cause it to be announced to the University by a paper affixed to the door of the Convocation house.

X. That since, through the changes to which all human institutions are liable, an adherence to the letter of these regulations may defeat the very object which the founders have in view, the trustees shall be at liberty (with the concurrence of the founders or any one of them, during their or his life, and of Convocation at all times) to alter or dispense with any of these regulations, (not even excepting the number of the scholarships,) as may seem to them advantageous, provided that they never lose sight of the main object of the foundation, the promotion of sound Theology through a solid and critical knowledge of Hebrew.

5. BURDETT-COUTTS SCHOLARSHIPS.

Regulations approved by Convocation, February 16, 1860, and amended by Convocation, February 27, 1866.

1. The proceeds of Angela Burdett-Coutts's benefaction to the University shall be paid in equal shares to two scholars, to be called the "Burdett-Coutts scholars."

2. The scholarships shall be two; of which one shall be filled up in each year, in Lent term, or in such other term as the trustees of the foundation shall deem fitting. The scholarships shall be tenable for two years. In the event of there being no election in any one year, the trustees may in the following year, on the special recommendation of the examiners, appoint from among the candidates an extra scholar, who shall however retain his scholarship for one year only.

Decr. Conv.
Febr. 27,
1866.

3. The subjects of the examination shall be geology generally, with so much of experimental physics, chemistry, and biology, as is requisite for an understanding of the principles and applications of geological science.

4. The scholarship shall be open to all members of the University who at the time of the election shall have passed all necessary examinations for the B.A. degree, and shall not have exceeded the twenty-seventh term from their matriculation.

Decr. Conv.
Febr. 27,
1866.

5. The trustees for the foundation shall be the Vice-Chancellor, the president of Magdalen college, and the regius professor of Medicine for the time being.

6. The examiners shall be the professor of geology, one other professor of the University, and one other person being a member of the University, whether a professor or not; the last two examiners shall be nominated by the trustees, and proposed for approbation or disapprobation to Convocation. In case of rejection a new nomination shall be made. Should the professor of geology be prevented from discharging this duty, a professor in some science cognate to geology, if possible, or some other member of the University, shall be appointed to take his place, in the manner prescribed above with regard to the two other examiners.

7. The examination shall be conducted at such hour, and in such place, and after such notice, as the examiners for the current year, with the sanction of the Vice-Chancellor, may appoint.

8. Any sums which may accrue from accidental vacancies, or otherwise, shall be invested for the same purpose as the original fund.

9. The trustees shall, with the consent of the foundress during her life, and with the consent of Convocation at all times, have power to alter these regulations from time to time, provided always that the main end of the foundation shall be kept in view, namely, the promotion of the study of geology, and of other branches of natural science bearing on geology, among the junior members of the University of Oxford.

6. ABBOTT SCHOLARSHIPS.

In a Convocation holden June 10, 1871, it was resolved to accept the sum of £6000 sterling bequeathed by the late John Abbott Esq. of Halifax to be invested in Three per Cent. Consolidated Bank Annuities in the name of the University for the purpose of founding three Scholarships, subject to the directions contained in Mr. Abbott's Will, and to the following Regulations, to which his Executors have given their assent.

Directions contained in Mr. Abbott's Will.

"It is my wish that the said Scholarships shall be given to undergraduates who have not kept more than three Terms at the University . . . , and that no one shall hold one for more than three years from his appointment. And it is my wish in founding the said Scholarships to give encouragement to learning, and to assist Clergymen of the Church of England in sending their sons to the Universities whose circumstances are such as not to enable them to bear the whole of that expense, as well as to assist orphans of Clergymen under similar circumstances in obtaining the benefit of an University education. And in the appointment of Scholars, I should, other things being equal, wish that Candidates born in the West Riding of the County of York should have the preference. I should also wish the said Scholarships to be called 'Abbott's Scholarships.'"

Regulations approved by Mr. Abbott's Executors.

1. The Trustees of Abbott's Scholarships shall be the Vice-Chancellor, the Regius Professors of Divinity and of Greek, the Corpus Professor of Latin, the Savilian Professor of Geometry, and the Sedleian Professor of Natural Philosophy. In case of votes being equally divided the Vice-Chancellor shall have a second or casting vote.

2. For every election the Trustees shall appoint three or more Examiners, who shall examine the Candidates and elect the Scholar.

3. The Candidates for these Scholarships shall be sons of Clergymen of the Church of England who stand in need of assistance to enable them to obtain the benefits of an University education, and, if members of the University, shall be undergraduates who have not exceeded their third Term of residence.

4. For every election the Trustees shall appoint two or more Members of Convocation, not necessarily of their own body, to examine the claims of all persons wishing to become Candidates. Every claim on which the judges so appointed cannot agree shall be referred to the Vice-Chancellor, and his decision shall be final. No person shall be received as a Candidate without the consent of the Head or Vicegerent of his College or Hall or of the Censors of Unattached Students, or, if not already a member of the University, without sufficient testimonials. The names of those who shall have been found to be duly qualified shall be sent to the Examiners; and the election shall then be made upon the ground of merit only, except that Candidates born in the West Riding of the County of York shall cæteris paribus be preferred.

5. The Examination shall be held annually in Easter Term.

6. The Trustees, in the absence of any specific regulations made by Convocation, shall arrange all matters relative to the subjects of the Examination.

7. After the payment of all necessary expenses, including (if the Trustees shall think fit) an honorarium to the Examiners, the annual profits of the original endowment shall be divided equally between the three Scholars.

8. Each Scholarship shall be tenable for three years from the date of election. If however a person not a member of the University shall be elected and his residence shall be deferred for more than one Term beyond the Term in which he was elected, he shall only have the profits of his Scholarship from the date of the commencement of his residence.

9. If in any year the Examiners shall find that there is no Candidate worthy of election, then at either of the two succeeding Examinations a second Scholar may be elected for two years only, or for one year only, as the case may be; care being taken to secure one vacancy for every year.

10. The Scholarships shall not be tenable with any Scholarship or Exhibition in any College or Hall, the annual value of which shall exceed the sum of fifty pounds.

11. The Trustees shall have power to deprive any Scholar of his Scholarship, or of any part of the emoluments thereof, on account of misconduct or of absence from the University.

12. Moneys arising from vacancies or mulcts shall be invested in Three per Cent. Consolidated Bank Annuities; and the Trustees shall have power to apply the dividends accruing therefrom in augmentation of the emoluments of the Scholarships, or in grants to unsuccessful Candidates recommended to them by the Examiners, or in accumulation with a view to increase the number of the Scholarships.

13. Regard being always had to the Will of the Founder, these Regulations may be altered from time to time by Convocation.

7. DERBY SCHOLAR.

In a Convocation holden June 8, 1872, it was agreed that the consent of Convocation should be given to the investment in Government Securities in the name of the University of the money contributed in Lancashire in honour of the late Edward Earl of Derby, K.G., Chancellor of the University, upon the following conditions.

“1. The dividends arising from the money so invested shall be paid to certain Trustees; who, after defraying therefrom every year all the necessary expenses of their trust, shall cause the residue of the yearly income of the fund to be paid to a person chosen by themselves, in any way that they from time to time shall appoint, out of such Members of the University as shall have completed their Twentieth and not exceeded their Twenty-fourth Term on the day fixed by the Trustees for receiving the names of Candidates; and the person so chosen shall be called The Derby Scholar for that year.

“2. The said Trustees shall be the Lord Lieutenant of Lancashire, the Earl of Derby, the Chancellor, the Vice-Chancellor, and the two Burgesses of the University, and the Dean of Christ Church, for the time being, together with the Right Honourable John Wilson Patten, M.P., so long as he shall be pleased to continue in the trust.”

1. IT is proposed, for the encouragement of theological learning in the University, to establish, under the following regulations, an annual prize of twenty guineas for the best English essay on some doctrine or duty of the Christian religion, or on some of the points on which we differ from the Romish church, or on any other subject of theology which shall be deemed meet and useful.

2. That all members of the University, who shall have passed their examination for their first degree of B. A. or B. C. L., and who shall have commenced their sixteenth term from their matriculation inclusively for the space of eight weeks previous to the day appointed for sending in the essays, and shall not have exceeded their twenty-eighth term from their matriculation inclusively on the day on which the subject of the essay shall be proposed in each year, shall be entitled to write for this prize.

University, from assisting in adjudging the prize or selecting the subject of the essay, such judge shall appoint, with the consent of the Vice-Chancellor and Proctors and of the other two judges, a member of the University, of the degree of B.D. or D.D., to act for him in this behalf; provided that the three judges who award the prize be in all cases, if practicable, members of three different colleges or halls.

5. That, if at any time hereafter the president of Magdalen college shall be a layman, or happen to be either regius or the lady Margaret's professor of Divinity, then, and in that case only, the master of University college shall act as judge, instead of such president, to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

6. That a difference of opinion among the judges shall be decided by a majority.

7. That the subject of the essay shall be proposed in Michaelmas term in this year, and in Act term before the commemoration in all future years; and that the essays shall be sent in on or before Wednesday in Easter week next ensuing.

8. That, if in any year none of the essays sent in be deemed worthy of a prize, in that case the proceeds shall be reserved for rewarding, at the discretion of the judges, the writers of the second best essay in any two future years by a donation of ten guineas to each.

9. That the essay to which the prize shall have been adjudged shall not be published, except in cases where the judges shall unanimously approve of the publication of such essay.

10. That the writer of a second best essay, rewarded with a donation, shall be subject to a similar restriction as to the publication of his essay.

11. That the essay to which the prize shall have been adjudged shall be read before the University, in the Divinity school, on some day and hour to be fixed by the Vice-Chancellor in the week next before the commemoration of the benefactors of the University in each year.

12. That no one to whom the prize shall have been adjudged shall again offer himself as a candidate.

4. That, after the present year, the subject for the essay in the succeeding year be announced by the judges before the close of the Lent term; the subject to be connected with ancient and with modern history in alternate years.

5. 7. That the trustees shall have power to make any subordinate rules or bye-laws for the purpose of

Dec. 6,
1864.

3. The prize to be open to all undergraduates who in the term in which it is to be awarded shall not have exceeded the sixteenth term from their matriculation. 4. The judges to be the regius professor of modern history, and the two senior examiners in the school of law and modern history holding office at the time that the subject for the prize is given out.

7. The prize in no case to be awarded to the same person a second time.

4. 6. In case the prize be not awarded, the proceeds of the fund then left unappropriated shall be invested for the future augmentation of the prize.

7. The trustees shall have power to make subordinate rules or by-laws for the purpose of carrying these regulations into effect; and Convocation shall always be at liberty to alter the regulations, provided that the main end of the prize be kept in view, namely, the advancement of astronomical and meteorological science.

7. THE CANON HALL AND HALL-HOUGHTON PRIZES.

Regulations contained in an indenture made February 16, 1869, between the rev. John Hall, B.D., of St. Edmund hall, honorary canon of Bristol, and the rev. Henry Houghton, M.A., of Pembroke college, of the one part, and the Chancellor Masters and Scholars of the University of Oxford, of the other part, for declaring the trusts of £3000 consolidated £3 per cent. annuities transferred by canon Hall and Mr. Houghton to the University.

[These Regulations were altered December 14, 1870, when the additional sum of £1500 was transferred to the University by the Founders, and were further altered June 8, 1871, when the Syriac prize was endowed by them.]

1. The purposes for which the trust fund and the income thereof are to be held are the establishment and maintenance of two prizes, one of £20 and one of £30, to be called the "canon Hall Greek Testament prizes;" two prizes, one of £15 and one of £25, to be called the "Hall-Houghton Septuagint prizes;" and one of £15, to be called the "Houghton Syriac Version prize;" which prizes shall be offered annually to candidates for examination in the Greek Testament, the Septuagint, and the Syriac versions of the Holy Scriptures respectively.

2. Candidates for the £15 Septuagint prize, and for the £20 Greek Testament prize, shall be members of the University of Oxford of not more than eighteen terms' standing: and candidates for the £15 Syriac Version prize shall be members of the University of Oxford of not more than twenty-eight terms' standing.

3. Candidates for the £30 Greek Testament prize and for the £25 Septuagint prize shall be such members of the University of Oxford as, having completed their eighteenth term, have not exceeded their twenty-eighth; provided that they have either taken the degree of B.A. or have passed all the examinations necessary to qualify them for taking the said degree.

4. Three examiners, who must be Masters of Arts or graduates in Divinity of the said University, shall be appointed annually in Michaelmas term by the trustees; and each examiner shall receive the sum of £10 for his services.

5. The trustees shall be the persons for the time being and from time to time holding the following offices in the University, viz. the Vice-Chancellorship, the regius professorship of Divinity, the Margaret professorship of Divinity, the regius professorship of Hebrew, the regius professorship of Pastoral Theology, the regius professorship of Ecclesiastical History, dean Ireland's professorship of the exegesis of Holy Scripture, and the Grinfield Lectureship on the LXX Version of the Hebrew Scriptures, or such of the said several persons for the time being holding the several offices and professorships aforesaid as shall consent to act as trustees.

6. One examination for each of the four prizes shall be held in Hilary term of each year, or in such other term as the trustees may from time to time appoint.

7. The subject for examination for the canon Hall junior prize shall be the Gospels and the Acts of the Apostles in the original Greek in respect of translation, criticism, and interpretation.

8. The subject for examination for the canon Hall senior prize shall be the New Testament in the original Greek in respect of translation, criticism, interpretation, inspiration, and authority.

9. The subject for examination for the Hall-Houghton senior prize shall be the Septuagint version of the Old Testament in its twofold aspect, retrospectively as regards the Hebrew Bible, and prospectively as regards the Greek Testament; and for the junior prize such book or books of the Septuagint version of the Old Testament as shall have been previously named by the trustees.

10. The subject for examination for the Houghton Syriac Version prize shall be the ancient versions of the Holy Scriptures into Syriac in respect of translation, criticism, and interpretation.

11. The prizes shall be awarded to that one of the candidates in the examination who in the judgment of the examiners, or of a majority of them, shall have acquitted himself best in the examination and shall be deserving of such prize; or, if there shall be only one candidate, then to such only candidate if deemed so deserving.

12. It shall not be lawful for any prize-man to compete again for a prize of the same kind as that already gained by him: but one who has gained the junior prize or prizes shall be entitled to compete for either or both of the senior prizes, when duly 'qualified in respect of standing; and the gaining of one of the junior or senior prizes shall not disqualify the successful candidate for competing for the other of such prizes, whether in the same or in a future term.

13. In case of any prize not being awarded the amount thereof shall be invested in augmentation of the trust fund.

14. The trustees shall have power to make any subordinate rules or bye-laws for the purpose of carrying the regulations of these presents into effect; and, in case of any accumulation of funds, to apply the proceeds in presents either of books or of money to meritorious candidates, or in such way or ways as shall seem most likely to promote the general object of the donors; which general object is the encouragement of the study of the Greek Testament, and also of the Septuagint version of the Hebrew Scriptures in its relation to the Hebrew Bible and the Greek Testament.

15. It shall be lawful for the University in Convocation, upon the recommendation of the trustees or a majority of them, and with the consent of the donors or the survivor of them so long as they or the survivor of them shall live, from time to time to convert into money all or any part of the said trust fund and to invest the same in the purchase of any freehold copyhold or customary manors messuages lands tenements or hereditaments in England or Wales for any estate of inheritance to be conveyed or surrendered or assigned to the University upon trust that the University shall, upon such recommendation and with such consent as aforesaid, sell the said manors messuages lands tenements and hereditaments, either together or in parcels, and either by public auction or private contract, and either with or without any special stipulations as to title or evidence or commencement of title or otherwise; and may buy or rescind or vary any contract for sale or resell without being answerable for loss occasioned thereby; and may for the purposes aforesaid or any of them execute and do all such assurances and things as they shall think fit; and shall stand possessed of the moneys to arise from any such sale (after payment thereout of the costs attending any exercise of the powers herein contained) upon the same trusts and with under and subject to the same powers provisoes agreements and declarations, including the said powers of purchasing hereditaments, as the money laid out in the purchase of such manors messuages lands tenements or hereditaments as aforesaid would then have been subject to, if the same had not been so laid out; and shall in the meantime, and until all such manors messuages lands tenements or hereditaments shall be sold, pay or apply the rents and profits thereof, or of the part thereof for the time being remaining unsold, to the persons for the purposes and in the manner to whom and for and in which the dividends interest and income of the trust premises applied in the purchase thereof as aforesaid would have been payable or applicable under the trusts hereinbefore declared, in case such purchase had not been made; it being hereby agreed and declared that the manors messuages lands tenements and hereditaments which shall be purchased under this present power shall when purchased be considered as money, and be subject to the same trusts in all respects as the money laid out in the purchase thereof would for the time being have been subject to, if the same had not been so laid out: provided nevertheless, and it is hereby agreed and declared, that the University, until all the said purchased manors messuages lands tenements and hereditaments shall be sold as aforesaid, shall or may, upon such recommendation and with such consent as aforesaid, demise the same or any part or parts thereof at rack-rent for any term of years to take effect in possession or within six calendar months from the making of the demise.

16. Each present trustee and every successor to him in the trusteeship shall, on ceasing to hold the office now held by such present trustee, cease to be a trustee; and the person to be appointed to such office shall, immediately upon his appointment to and acceptance of the same, become, if willing so to be, a trustee under these presents in the place of the trustee so ceasing as aforesaid.*

17. In all cases (if any) of dispute or difference the decision or act of a majority of the trustees for the time being, or of such of them as shall be within the United Kingdom and not incapacitated by illness from attending to business, shall be equivalent to the decision or act of the entire body of trustees: and in case of an equality of opinions the point in dispute or difference shall be decided by the Vice-Chancellor for the time being, whether he be or be not an acting trustee; he, if an acting trustee, to have a second or casting vote.

18. It shall be lawful for the University in Convocation from time to time or at any time to alter any of the above provisions of these presents, but only with the joint consent of the donors during their joint lives, and after the death of either of them then with the consent of the survivor of them during his life, and after the decease of such survivor then with the consent of a majority of the trustees: provided always, that, except with the joint consent of the donors, the funds of the trust shall be applied only to promote the general object of the donors as above defined in regulation no. 14.
